III. Prière à Notre-Dame

Léon Boëllmann (1862-1897)

The people stand as the bell tolls.

Opening Acclamation |

Celebrant	Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People	And blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

Lord, you have searched me out and known me; you know my sitting down and my rising up; you discern my thoughts from afar.

Collect of the Day |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Grant us, O Lord, to trust in you with all our hearts; for, as you always resist the proud who confide in their own strength, so you never forsake those who make their boast of your mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

The First Lesson | Jeremiah 18:1-11

The word that came to Jeremiah from the Lord: "Come, go down to the potter's house, and there I will let you hear my words." So I went down to the potter's house, and there he was working at his wheel. The vessel he was making of clay was spoiled in the potter's hand, and he reworked it into another vessel, as seemed good to him. Then the word of the Lord came to me: Can I not do with you, O house of Israel, just as this potter has done? says the Lord. Just like the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel. At one moment I may declare concerning a nation or a kingdom, that I will pluck up and break down and destroy it, but if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turns from its evil, I will change my mind about the disaster that I intended to bring on it. And at another moment I may declare concerning a nation or a kingdom that I will build and plant it, but if it does evil in my sight, not listening to my voice, then I will change my mind about the good that I had intended to do to it. Now, therefore, say to the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: Thus says the Lord: Look, I am a potter shaping evil against you and devising a plan against you. Turn now, all of you from your evil way, and amend your ways and your doings.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Second Lesson | Philemon 1-21

Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, To Philemon our dear friend and co-worker, to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. When I remember you in my prayers, I always thank my God because I hear of your love for all the saints and your faith toward the Lord Jesus. I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective when you perceive all the good that we may do for Christ. I have indeed received much joy and encouragement from your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, my brother. For this reason, though I am bold enough in Christ to command you to do your duty, yet I would rather appeal to you on the basis of love-- and I, Paul, do this as an old man, and now also as a prisoner of Christ Jesus. I am appealing to you for my child, Onesimus, whose father I have become during my imprisonment. Formerly he was useless to you, but now he is indeed useful both to you and to me. I am sending him, that is, my own heart, back to you. I wanted to keep him with me, so that he might be of service to me in your place during my imprisonment for the gospel; but I preferred to do nothing without your consent, in order that your good deed might be voluntary and not something forced. Perhaps this is the reason he was separated from you for a while, so that you might have him back forever, no longer as a slave but more than a slave, a beloved brother-- especially to me but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord. So if you consider me your partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. If he has wronged you in any way, or owes you anything, charge that to my account. I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand: I will repay it. I say nothing about your owing me even your own self. Yes, brother, let me have this benefit from you in the Lord! Refresh my heart in Christ. Confident of your obedience, I am writing to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Gospel | Luke 14:25-33

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Now large crowds were traveling with Jesus; and he turned and said to them, "Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, saying, 'This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.' Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace. So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon | The Rev. Dr. Andrew K. Barnett

The people are seated at the preacher's invitation.

A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

The Nicene Creed |

The people stand.

Celebrant Let us affirm our faith using the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit

he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,

and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People |

The people stand or kneel for the prayers.

Intercessor Loving God, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;

People That we all may be one.

Intercessor Grant that every member of your Church may truly and humbly serve you.

People That your name may be glorified by all people.

Intercessor In the Anglican Communion, we pray for The Anglican Church of Australia. In our Diocese we pray for the people and clergy of St. Clement's Church in Canton. And in our parish, we ask God's blessing on the men, staff and board of Covenant Community and we give thanks for their witness to the power of grace and new life. We pray for all bishop's, priests, and deacons;

People That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and sacraments.

Intercessor We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world.

People That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Intercessor Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;

People That our works may find favor in your sight.

Intercessor I ask your prayers for those who are sick (The names of the sick will be read aloud). Are there others in need of prayer? Lord, have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;

People That they may be delivered from their distress.

Intercessor I ask your prayers for those who have died (The names of those who have died will be read aloud). Are there others who have died? Lord, give to the departed eternal rest;

People Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Intercessor We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;

People May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Concluding Collect |

Celebrant Lord, hear the prayers of your people: and what we have asked faithfully, grant that we obtain effectually, to the glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

Confession and Absolution |

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

The people stand or kneel for the confession.

Celebrant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Peace |

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The people exchange a sign of God's peace and are seated.

Announcements |

Your financial support helps us participate in God's work in the world. If you would like to contribute to the Sunday offering, we invite you to place your donation in the offering plate, or scan the code to the right with your phone to give electronically.

The Holy Communion

Music at the Offertory |

“How can I keep from singing”
My life flows on in endless song, above earth's lamentation.
I hear the sweet, though far-off hymn that hails a new creation.
Through all the tumult and the strife,
I hear that music ringing.
It finds an echo in my soul.
How can I keep from singing?
What though my joys and comforts die,
the Lord my Savior liveth.
What though the darkness gather round?
Songs in the night he giveth.
No storm can shake my inmost calm,

Robert Lowry (1826-1899)
while to that Refuge clinging.
Since Christ is Lord of heaven and earth,
how can I keep from singing?
I lift mine eyes, the cloud grows thin,
I see the blue above it,
and day by day this pathway smooths,
since first I learned to love it.
The peace of Christ makes fresh my heart,
a fountain ever springing,
all things are mine since I am His,
how can I keep from singing?

Eucharistic Prayer A |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them up to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

The Celebrant offers a proper preface for the day.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry.
 Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
 Ho - san - na in the high - est, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues.

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and maker and of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O God,

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, Almighty God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Savior. By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Whoever you are, wherever you are on your journey, you are welcome at this table.

The people are seated.

Communion Motet |

Peter Hallock (1924-2014)

“The Lord is my light”

The Lord is my light,
 The refuge of my life and my salvation;
 of whom then shall I be afraid?
 If I take the wings of the morning,
 or go up unto heaven,
 your right hand will hold me.
 In the shadow of your wings
 I will rejoice and bless your hold Name;
 and I will sing of your Glory,
 O Lord my strength,
 as long as I live.

Are you interested in deepening your spiritual experience during our services? The Eucharistic Ministers Team could be a great fit for you. Our team assists the Celebrant during the Eucharist by helping to serve the consecrated bread and wine. Training can be completed in one session and is usually conducted between the 9:00 and 11:15 services. The time commitment is limited to Sundays and only on a voluntary basis. If you are interested in learning more or have questions, please reach out to Jan Kibler at janetkibler58@gmail.com.

What's God up to? Listening for the heart of All Saints' and our Neighbors

Sunday, September 11, 10:20 – 11:05 a.m., Ellis Hall

Where has God most been present to you these past few years in your daily lives and in the life of All Saints'? Join members of the vestry and parish as we explore such questions and listen deeply to one another for how the Spirit is moving in our lives and through this church.

The Journey

Begins Monday, September 12, 11:00 a.m., Zoom

The Journey with The Rev. Karen Evans is a Bible study group that meets weekly on Monday mornings at 11:00 a.m. The group meets via Zoom, and the link is sent to those registered. We will start our study by exploring the Gospel according to Luke. The only requirements are a Bible and a willingness to journey deeply into the scripture and gain new insights into our faith. To register, email Karen Evans at kevans@allsaintsatlanta.org

Labyrinth Ministry at All Saints'

Sunday, September 11, 4:30 p.m., Kennedy Courtyard

Celebrate the opening of our hearts to the fall season, to the honoring of lives lost on 9/11, to new beginnings and summer memories. Walk the labyrinth in the spirit of pilgrimage: receive what nurtures your open heart, renew your spirit, and remember your journey. Labyrinth walks take place in Kennedy Courtyard (rain location: Ellis Hall) and are accompanied by live music. When planning your visit, please allow approximately 20 minutes for your walk.

Children & Youth

Sunday Night Live Welcome Back Party

Sunday, September 11, 6:00-7:30 p.m., The Attic (3rd floor of the Pritchett Center)

Sunday Night Live is our youth group for all youth grades 6-12. Join us on September 11 for our first SNL of the year!

Children's Choirs for Grades PreK – 6th

Wednesdays, 4:00-6:30 p.m., 2nd floor of the Pritchett Center

Choir rehearsals have begun for children in PreK – 6th grade but it's not too late to join!

- Cherub Choir 4-4:30 p.m. (PreK-K)
- Primary Choir 4:35-5:10 p.m. (1st-2nd)
- Junior Choir 5:15-6:00 p.m. (3rd-6th)
- Junior Handbells 6-6:30 p.m. (4th-6th)

We've got a great year planned. You are invited to join us for Wednesday Night Suppers, served in Ellis Hall from 5:00 – 7:00 p.m. Register and pay for supper online.

Youth Choir and Handbells for Grades 7 – 12

Sunday afternoons, 2nd floor of the Pritchett Center Handbells 4:15-5:00 p.m.; Choir 5:00-6:00 p.m.

Choir rehearsals for youth have begun and you are welcome to join us! This stellar group sings beautiful music from a variety of eras and genres and we have fun doing it. You don't need to read music to be in handbells (just be able to count to 8!), but you do need to sing in the choir to ring in the handbell choir. SNL (Sunday Night Live) begins September 11 and will meet every Sunday evening, so you can grab some dinner and enjoy the full Youth Group after choir.

Parish Life

Wednesday Night Supper: Burgers, Hot Dogs, and Cornhole

Wednesday, September 7, 5:00-7:00 p.m.

Join us for Wednesday Night Supper on September 7 where we'll enjoy burgers and hot dogs (vegetarian equivalent will be available) and have a cornhole competition. Bring a friend for free! To register ahead of time, visit our website or register online via Realm. For more information, contact Jill Gossett, Parish Life Director, at jgossett@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Women's Community: Play & Pray

Saturday, September 10, 2:00-4:00 p.m., Ellis Hall

We invite All Saints' women of all ages to join us for our second Women's Community gathering of the year! Join us as we Play & Pray together and reconnect after our summer break. Be sure to bring a "snack your mom would disapprove of" to share for our Snack-a-Thon competition (think candy, popcorn, junk food)! For more information, contact Erin Cassel at erincassel@gmail.com.

Make New Friends with Foyer Groups

One of the very best ways to get to know fellow parishioners in a big church like All Saints is through informal, small dinner group gatherings at one another's homes. The groups formed are a great mix—single, married, of a varied status and age. Many close friendships have been formed through these great dinner gatherings; it's a perfect, low-key way to make connections. Signups will be at the Parish Life table until mid-September or you can register online at the All Saints' website. For more information contact Barbara Blender at bblender@bellsouth.net or Sherry Collins at sherry_collins@bellsouth.net.

Service

Refugee Ministries: Swimming Buddies

Saturday, September 10, all day, Lake Jackson

Cool off with Refugee Ministries this summer and enjoy some swimming fun in the sun with our refugee friends. This is a great opportunity for families with children, and we can provide service hours for teens. We also need volunteers to transport our refugee friends; drivers must be at least 25 years old. For locations and more information, contact Louisa Merchant at louisam@allsaintsatlanta.org.

September Parish Wide Threads FALL Clothing Drive

Requesting donations of gently used or new Children's clothing for both Boys and Girls, infants through size 18 and small adult clothing in preparation for RE-Opening Threads for in-shop shopping in October. The School Uniform Event was a huge success, with 400 children served with clothing and shoes. However, that left Threads with low inventory, so we need a clothing drive now! Donation boxes are located on the first floor of the Pritchett Center and in the first-floor stairwell between Ellis Hall and Egleston Hall. Please consider talking to neighbors and family and asking them to donate too! You may also think about involving your children's extracurricular groups, scouts, or sports teams as well.

Questions? Contact Lori Guarisco at threads@allsaintsatlanta.org

Share a Meal with the Men of Covenant Community

For the past 25 years since the founding of Covenant Community, All Saints' parishioners have generously provided dinner on Monday nights for its residents. This has always meant so much to the men of this residential drug treatment facility. Bring dinner yourself or with family, with friends or co-workers. What a great way to offer your support! Meals for around 15 people can either be shared with the men inside the residence or they can be dropped off during the day. Available dates are September 5 and September 12. To volunteer or for more information, contact Barbara Blender at bblender@bellsouth.net.
