The ushers will direct you to communion stations, and the congregation will sing during outdoor services only. If you are worshipping from home, we invite you to add your joys and concerns in the Facebook comments. God bless you in this time of prayer.

Collect of the Day |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, from whom all good proceeds: Grant that by your inspiration we may think those things that are right, and by your merciful guiding may do them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

The First Lesson | 1 Samuel 8:4–11, (12–15), 16–20, (11:14–15)

All the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah, and said to him, “You are old and your sons do not follow in your ways; appoint for us, then, a king to govern us, like other nations.” But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, “Give us a king to govern us.” Samuel prayed to the Lord, and the Lord said to Samuel, “Listen to the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me from being king over them. Just as they have done to me, from the day I brought them up out of Egypt to this day, forsaking me and serving other gods, so also they are doing to you. Now then, listen to their voice; only—you shall solemnly warn them, and show them the ways of the king who shall reign over them.”

So Samuel reported all the words of the Lord to the people who were asking him for a king. He said, “These will be the ways of the king who will reign over you: he will take your sons and appoint them to his chariots and to be his horsemen, and to run before his chariots; (and he will appoint for himself commanders of thousands and commanders of fifties, and some to plow his ground and to reap his harvest, and to make his implements of war and the equipment of his chariots. He will take your daughters to be perfumers and cooks and bakers. He will take the best of your fields and vineyards and olive orchards and give them to his courtiers. He will take one-tenth of your grain and of your vineyards and give it to his officers and his courtiers.) He will take your male and female slaves, and the best of your cattle and donkeys, and put them to his work. He will take one-tenth of your flocks, and you shall be his slaves. And in that day you will cry out because of your king, whom you have chosen for yourselves; but the Lord will not answer you in that day.”

But the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel; they said, “No! but we are determined to have a king over us, so that we also may be like other nations, and that our king may govern us and go out before us and fight our battles.”

(Samuel said to the people, “Come, let us go to Gilgal and there renew the kingship.” So all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before the Lord in Gilgal. There they sacrificed offerings of well-being before the Lord, and there Saul and all the Israelites rejoiced greatly.)

Psalm | 138

Reader God sits enthroned above the flood,
People enthroned as Sovereign for evermore.

Reader God shall give strength to the people;
People God shall give the people the blessing of peace.

The Second Lesson | 2 Corinthians 4:13–5:1

Just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture –“I believed, and so I spoke” – we also believe, and so we speak, because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence. Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature

Reader The word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

is being renewed day by day. For this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure, because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen; for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.

For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

“Brood o’er us with thy sheltering wing”

Love

setting: Charles Callahan (b. 1951)

Brood o’er us with Thy sheltering wing,
 ’Neath which our spirits blend
 Like brother birds, that soar and sing,
 And on the same branch bend.
 The arrow that doth wound the dove
 Darts not from those who watch and love.
 If Thou the bending reed would break
 By thought or word unkind,
 Pray that his spirit you partake,
 Who loved and healed mankind:
 Seek holy thoughts and heavenly strain,
 That make men one in love remain.
 Learn, too, that wisdom’s rod is given
 For faith to kiss and know;
 That greetings glorious from high heaven,
 Whence joys supernal flow,
 Come from that Love, divinely near,
 Which chastens pride and earthborn fear,

Through God, who gave that word of might
 Which swelled creation’s lay:
 “Let there be light, and there was light.”
 What chased the clouds away?
 ‘Twas Love whose finger traced aloud
 A bow of promise on the cloud.
 Thou to whose power our hope we give,
 Free us from human strife.
 Fed by Thy love divine we live,
 For Love alone is Life;
 And life most sweet, as heart to heart
 Speaks kindly when we meet and part.

The Gospel | Mark 3:20–35

The people stand.

Gospeler The holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The crowd came together again, so that Jesus and his disciples could not even eat. When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, “He has gone out of his mind.” And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, “He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons.” And he called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, “How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come. But no one can enter a strong man’s house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered.

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you Lord Christ.

The people are seated.

“Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin”— for they had said, “He has an unclean spirit.”

Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, “Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you.” And he replied, “Who are my mother and my brothers?” And looking at those who sat around him, he said, “Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.”

Eucharistic Prayer B |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

For by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might,
 Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might,
 hea - ven and earth are full, full of your glo - ry
 Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
 Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore, according to his command, O God,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,
 We proclaim his resurrection,
 We await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation. By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Racial Equity and Healing in our Music

In keeping with our commitment to racial healing and equity here in Atlanta and beyond, our music and worship leaders have been exploring ways in which music could play a role in this important work. All Saints' has begun a partnership with Challenge the Stats, a non-profit organization that empowers BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, People of Color) by creating communities devoted to equity in the classical performing arts. CTS seeks to equip audiences and artists with the tools needed to advocate for justice both inside and outside of the concert hall. Beginning this month (April), we will start to see and hear some of the many talented CTS artists in our 10:00 am online worship broadcast. We are also exploring the possibility of future concerts with CTS artists on our block, both indoors and in our beautiful courtyard.

For more information on CTS, please visit: <https://challengethestats.org/>

Vestry Notes

April 17, 2021 |

All Saints' vestry met on April 17 via Zoom. Following a mediation by Arjun Srinivasan, Charlie Henn gave the Clerk's Report. Sheldon Taylor provided the Treasurer's Report, noting that Cash balances are approximately $2.3 million and the endowment balance is approximately $12.9 million, up around 7.4% for the year. Income and expenses are tracking to budget for the year. We have submitted paperwork for PPP loan forgiveness, and the 2020 audit will be presented to the Finance Committee at its next meeting. In the Rector's Report, Simon announced and the vestry approved the appointment of Sydney Cleland to serve as Senior Warden for the 2021–22 year. Following nominations, the Vestry voted unanimously to approve Dan Pennywell as Junior Warden and Mary Jo Bryan as Clerk. The vestry then discussed and approved an updated set of Covid protocols from the Diocese governing Church-related gatherings. Among other changes, the choir will be able to rehearse and sing, communion may take place at the altar rail, and weddings will move back indoors. Mark McDonald, on behalf of the Buildings and Grounds Committee, led a discussion concerning the process to select vendors to perform work at the Church. Lori Reinking reported on the work of the Nominating Committee, which considered a number of possible candidates to serve as delegates to the Diocesan Council, and collectively nominated: Lawrence Davidson, Bruce Garner, Mary Helen Miller, Alvin Moore, and David Smith. The Committee nominated the following to serve as alternates: Jerry Byrd, Barbara Hammond, Danny Johnson, Missi McMorries, and Brooke Weinmann. The Vestry unanimously approved the slate of delegates and alternates. Finally, the new Vestry Class (Justin Averette, Greg Cole, Louisa Johnson, Steve Moreland, Gail Rogers, and Charlene Smith-Stewart) introduced themselves and then participated in the Liturgy of Commissioning New Vestry.

The next vestry meeting is set for Monday, June 21, at 4:30 p.m.

Our beautiful church buildings will soon have what has been most conspicuously missing for the past 13 months: you. We cannot wait to welcome you home.

Welcome Home.

Worship in the church will resume Trinity Sunday, May 30. Updated COVID-19 protocol will be observed. Please visit allsaintsatlanta.org for details.

A photograph of an outdoor labyrinth walk. The labyrinth is drawn on a light-colored surface and is illuminated by several small, glowing orange candles placed along its path. In the foreground, there are large, vibrant flowers in shades of red, orange, and pink.

Outdoor labyrinth walks return, with live music to enhance your meditative walking experience.

Join us for a lunchtime concert featuring four classically-trained cellists who enjoy performing classical music but are just as likely to be found playing rock and pop songs.
