Collect of the Day |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of your people: Grant that when we hear his voice we may know him who calls us each by name, and follow where he leads; who, with you and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

The First Lesson | Acts 9:36–43

Now in Joppa there was a disciple whose name was Tabitha, which in Greek is Dorcas. She was devoted to good works and acts of charity. At that time she became ill and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in a room upstairs. Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, who heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him with the request, “Please come to us without delay.” So Peter got up and went with them; and when he arrived, they took him to the room upstairs. All the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing tunics and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was with them. Peter put all of them outside, and then he knelt down and prayed. He turned to the body and said, “Tabitha, get up.” Then she opened her eyes, and seeing Peter, she sat up. He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then calling the saints and widows, he showed her to be alive. This became known throughout Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. Meanwhile he stayed in Joppa for some time with a certain Simon, a tanner.

Reader The word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Psalm | 23

Dominus regit me

Chant: Edward Bairstow (1874–1946)

Sung by the choir.

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not be in want.

He makes me lie down in green pastures and leads me beside still waters.

He revives my soul
and guides me along right pathways for his Name’s sake.

Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil;
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me;
you have anointed my head with oil,
and my cup is running over.

Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

“Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!”

And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing,

“Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?” I said to him, “Sir, you are the one that knows.” Then he said to me, “These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.

They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Sequence Hymn | 286

The people stand.

“Who are these like stars appearing”

Zeuch mich, zeuch mich

1. Who are these like stars ap - pear - ing, these be - fore God's throne who stand?
2. Who are these of daz - zling bright - ness, these in God's own truth ar - rayed,
3. These are they who have con - tend - ed for their Sa - vior's hon - or long,
4. These are they whose hearts were riv - en, sore with woe and an - guish tried,
5. These, like priests, have watched and wait - ed, of - fering up to Christ their will,

Each a gold - en crown is wear - ing; who are all this glo - rious band?
clad in robes of pur - est white - ness, robes whose lus - ter ne'er shall fade, wres - tling on till life was end - ed, fol - lowing not the sin - ful throng;
who in prayer full oft have striv - en with the God they glo - ri - fied;
soul and bo - dy con - se - crat - ed day and night they serve him still.

Al - le - lu - ia! hark they sing, prais - ing loud their heaven - ly King.
ne'er be touched by time's rude hand? Whence comes all this glo - rious band?
these, who well the fight sus - tained, tri - umph by the Lamb have gained.
now, their pain - ful con - flict o'er, God has bid them weep no more.
Now in God's most ho - ly place, blest they stand be - fore his face.

The Gospel | John 10:22–30

Gospeler The holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

At that time the festival of the Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the portico of Solomon. So the Jews gathered around him and said to him, “How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly.” Jesus answered, “I have told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father’s name testify to me; but you do not believe, because you do not belong to my sheep. My sheep hear my voice. I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand. What my Father has given me is greater than all else, and no one can snatch it out of the Father’s hand. The Father and I are one.”

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon | The people are seated at the preacher’s invitation.

Margaret Pope, Caroline Stanford,
Madeleine Coleman, Jack Srinivasan

A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

The Nicene Creed |

The people stand.

Celebrant Let us affirm our faith using the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism
for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People |

The people stand or kneel for the prayers.

Intercessor Grace to you and peace from Jesus Christ, the firstborn of the dead.
The Lord has acted; let us rejoice and be glad, saying, “You are our God;
People and we thank you.”

Intercessor Almighty God, you have given your Church the ministry of reconciliation: grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ’s Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith. You are our God;
People And we thank you.

Intercessor Ruler of the kings of the earth, Lord Jesus, your word is a word of peace: speak forth salvation in a weary world. You are our God;
People And we thank you.

Intercessor All you do, O Lord, is marvelous in our eyes: give us a respect for all you have made. (Thanksgivings will be read aloud). In the Anglican Communion, we pray for The Anglican Church of Southern Africa. In our Diocese, we pray for Holy Comforter Church in Atlanta. In our parish, we give thanks for all those who are mothers, and all those who have been like mothers in our midst. May God bless these bonds of affection, protect those who are about to give birth, and comfort those who have lost a child. You are our God;
People And we thank you.

Intercessor Mighty Savior, raise up faithful witnesses in our community, that our neighbors might come to know that you love them and have freed them from the power of sin. You are our God;
People And we thank you.

Intercessor O Lord, you are good; your mercy endures forever: be the strength of the weak and of those who are sick. (The names of those who are ill will be read aloud). You are our God;
People And we thank you.

Intercessor Alpha and Omega, you do not hand your beloved ones over to death, but promise life eternal to all those baptized into your Son: to you be glory and dominion forever. (The names of those who have died will be read aloud). You are our God;
People And we thank you.

Concluding Collect |

Celebrant

Hasten, O God, the coming of your kingdom; and grant that we your servants, who now live by faith, may with joy behold your Son at his coming in glorious majesty; even Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

Confession and Absolution |

The people stand or kneel for the confession.

Celebrant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Peace |

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The people exchange a sign of God's peace, and are seated.

Announcements |

Your financial support helps us participate in God's work in the world. If you would like to contribute to the Sunday offering, we invite you to place your donation in the offering plate, or scan the code to the right with your phone to give electronically.

A Blessing for High School Seniors

May God who began this good work in you carry it through to completion, enabling you to use your talents to the fullest.

May God give you the grace of wisdom and to be faithful to your commitments, always confident in the support of those who love you.

May God bless you with discomfort at easy answers,
half-truths, and superficial relationships,
so that you will live deep within your heart.

May God bless you with anger at injustice, oppression, and exploitation of people,
so that you will work for justice, equality, and peace.

May God bless you with tears to shed for those who suffer from pain, rejection, starvation, and war, so that you will reach out your hand to comfort them and see their pain change to joy.

May God bless you with the foolishness to think that you can make a difference in the world, so that you will do the things which others tell you cannot be done.

May your integrity be a gift to the world and may the Holy Spirit be with you always.

And the blessing of God Almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be upon you this day and forever more. Amen.

The Holy Communion

Offertory Anthem |

“The Lord is my shepherd”
The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to rest in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside still waters.
He giveth peace unto my soul:
He leadeth me in paths of goodness
for His Name’s sake.
Yea, though I walk through Death’s dark vale of shadows,
no evil will I fear:
for Thou art still with me.
Thy rod and staff,
they comfort me.
Thou preparest here a table for me,
in presence of mine enemies:
my head with oil Thou anointest;
my cup runneth over.
Yea, surely peace and mercy
all my life shall follow me:
and I will dwell with God for evermore.

Franz Schubert (1797–1828)

Words: Psalm 23

Presentation Hymn |

The people stand.

“Praise God from whom all blessings flow”

Lasst uns erfreuen

Praise God from whom all blessings flow, Praise God, all creatures here be - low;
Al - le - lu - ia, Al - le - lu - ia! Praise God a - bove, you heav'n - ly host:
Praise Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost. Al - le - lu - ia, Al - le - lu - ia, Al - le - lu - ia, Al - le - lu - ia, Al - le - lu - ia!

Eucharistic Prayer A |

Celebrant
The Lord be with you.

People
And al - so with you.

Celebrant
Lift up your hearts.

People
We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won ^ofor us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus |

Setting: Missa Resurrectionis, Gerre Hancock (1934–2012)

Sung by the choir.

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

The Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and maker and of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper Jesus took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, Almighty God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Savior.

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Whoever you are, wherever you are on your journey, you are welcome at this table.

The people are seated.

Healing prayers are offered in the chapel during communion.

Post Communion Prayer |

The people stand.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessing |

Celebrant

May Almighty God, who has redeemed us and made us his children through the resurrection of his Son our Lord, bestow upon us the riches of his blessing.

May God, who through the water of baptism has raised us from sin into newness of life, make us holy and worthy to be united with Christ for ever.

May God, who has brought us out of bondage to sin into true and lasting freedom in the Redeemer, bring us to our eternal inheritance.

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you for ever. Amen.

Senior Sunday | 9:00 a.m. and 11:15 a.m.

We welcome all high school students and their families to join us in a blessing for our graduating seniors. We will pray a blessing over our graduating seniors and present them with a gift from the congregation to take to college. Family and friends are warmly invited to join this auspicious occasion. Congratulations seniors!

Jesus on the Front Page | Sundays, 10:15-11:05 a.m., P305/306

Join this ongoing discussion of the news of the day and how we are called as Christians to respond in the public arena, in our private lives, and in our prayers.

Giving

May is Remember the Church Offering month. Remember how we used to bring some cash for the offering plate to church?

Let's remember to tuck a few dollars in our pockets for Sunday morning.

The Varsity next door may have a sign out "We are a cashless facility" but the church welcomes each and every gift. Join me and put some money in the plate instead of giving the "No Thanks" hand when the plate gets passed.

Give a Gift or Make a Pledge Payment Today:

- Online at allsaintsatlanta.org/give
- Mail a check to All Saints' Church, 634 W. Peachtree St., Atlanta, GA 30308

Sunday Morning Children's Formation | Sundays, 10:15-11:05 a.m., 2nd Floor of Pritchett Children's Center

We meet for hands-on learning and fun as children are immersed in the greatest hits of the Bible. With a motto of "learn it and live it," we invite kids to see the world through the lens of Jesus' unconditional love and then share God's love with their neighbors.

Animal Meeting | Sunday, May 15, 10:15-11:05 a.m., 2nd Floor Pritchett Center

While your parents are at the Annual Meeting (Parish Meeting), we will go off-leash and have our very first Animal Meeting. Please bring your favorite stuffed animal, wear animal print or animal T-shirts, and be ready to share with all the animals your favorite things you did at church or with church this year and ideas you would like to do next year. We will have Animal Crackers and Water Bowls for snack.

Moving Up Celebration | Sunday, May 22, 9:00-11:05 a.m., Church, Kennedy Courtyard

On this day, we will celebrate the milestones of Moving Up to the Attic for 5th graders and Moving Up to Club 45 for 3rd graders. Make sure to join us in the Kennedy courtyard for Ice Cream Sundaes, to congratulate the kids personally, and to sign their Bibles with your name and maybe a favorite verse.

Youth Ministries

Sunday Morning Youth Formation | Sundays, 10:15-11:05 a.m., The Attic, 3rd Floor of Pritchett Children's Center

Young people in grades 6 through 12 gathers weekly in The Attic for group games, prayer, music, and a brief presentation before diving into small groups by grade level for deeper discussion around relevant topics relating to faith and life as followers of Jesus.

Young Adults

St. Cecilia's Young Women's Group: Sunday Devotional | Sunday, May 22, 6:30-7:30 p.m., on Zoom

All Saints' women in their 20s and 30s are invited to join us for monthly (online) gatherings. You might be a college student, graduate student, young professional, newlywed, new mom, or "old hat" mom, but one thing we all have in common right now is CHANGE. We will spend an hour together on the fourth Sunday of each month in fellowship, digging into how Christ will carry us through all these transitions of our lives.

Adult Formation

The Journey with the Rev. Karen Evans | Mondays, 11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m., on Zoom

The Bible is full of journeys: short, long, searching, moving, fleeing and more. Things happen on these journeys: lives are changed, new directions are found; and through it all, "the feeling remains that God is on the journey, too" -Teresa of Avila. The Journey is a Bible study exploring the biblical journeys and what they have to say about our own.

Parish Life

Annual Parish Meeting | Sunday, May 15, 10:15 a.m., Ellis Hall

Join us for our Annual Parish Meeting, when we reflect on the past year and elect new members of the vestry. This meeting will take place in Ellis Hall at 10:15 a.m.

Special Vestry Election |

At their regularly scheduled meeting on Monday April 25, E. J. Diedrich and Alvin Moore were elected in a unanimous vote to fill the one-year term vacated by Desmond Dorsey and the two-year term vacated by the late Charlene Smith-Stewart respectively. The vestry extends their heartfelt thanks to E. J. and Alvin for their willingness to serve in leadership at All Saints' on vestry once more.

Popcorn Theology: "True Justice" | Friday, May 13, 7:00-9:30 p.m., Ellis Hall

Join The MICAHA Project as we prepare for this June's pilgrimage to Alabama by viewing "True Justice," the 2019 documentary about Bryan Stevenson, founder and executive director of the Equal Justice Initiative. All are welcome. Beer, wine, soft drinks and popcorn will be available. Feel free to bring your own food or drink. No registration required. We will have time for discussion following the film.

CALF—Out of Hand Theater Performance | Sunday, May 15, 2022, 4:00 p.m., Ellis Hall

Did you know Georgia leads the world in the percentage of citizens in prison, jail, detention, and juvenile justice facilities? More than a half million Georgians are behind bars or under supervision. How do they rebuild their lives after prison? How do we respond to them once they have paid their debt to society?

Please join us as we learn through the arts about the impact of our justice system. On Sunday afternoon, parishioner Ariel Fristoe will bring her award-winning Out of Hand Theater to All Saints' for a free performance of Calf, a one-act play by Leviticus Jelks. We'll follow Bull Willis, just released from prison, as he tries to find a place to live and a job and connect with a son he's never met. After the performance we'll have a conversation about mass incarceration facilitated by members of the Georgia Justice Project. The issue of criminal justice directly faces one out of every eighteen Georgians. As followers of Jesus, we are all affected. Please click the link below and use the password "allsaints" to register for this free performance.

Sports and Spirituality | Third Thursday of Each Month (starts May 19), 7:00-8:00 p.m., on Zoom

Please join Judd Asbill and Paul Terlemezian as we begin each session by talking about sports and then using humor (perhaps irony) to transition the conversation to spirituality. Bring your favorite sports story from any sport of your choice. Be part of a JOYful experience that will bring Glory to God, especially while we learn from those who compete "against" each other. Please sign up online to receive the Zoom link.

Pastoral Ministries Fair | Sunday, May 22, 10:00-11:15 a.m., Kennedy Courtyard Lawn

Come learn about the pastoral care ministries at All Saints' and find ways you can get involved. We'll have delicious snacks, and we invite you to join us in ministries that have made a real difference in our lives:

ECare (Pray for names we receive on the prayer list)
Sunday Callers (Bring Sunday flowers to parishioners)
Respite Care Atlanta (Support for patients experiencing Alzheimers or dementia)
Guild of the Good Shepherd (Hospitality after funerals)
Eucharistic Visitors (Bring communion to members who can't join in person)
Note Writers (Send a hand-written note in response to prayer requests)
Bereavement Callers (Journey with mourners in the year after a loved one's funeral)

Service

Outside Community Dinner in Celebration of the Work of Refugee Ministries | Saturday, May 14, 6:00-8:00 p.m., Refuge Coffee, 4170 E Ponce de Leon Ave NE, Clarkston, GA 30021

Join our families and volunteers in celebrating the work that was done during Covid by coming together for dinner at fellowship at Refuge Coffee. If you would like to help provide transportation for a family or food (reimbursed), please sign up here: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/4090e-4ca4ab2aa2ff2-community> or just bring your family and friends to celebrate. Refuge Coffee is a beautiful place and organization recently featured on the Kelly Clarkson show.

Donate Summer Clothing to Threads

We invite donations of new or gently used children's clothing and new shoes for summer; a donation barrel is located in the upper level of the parking garage behind the security booth. Questions? Contact Lori Guarisco at threads@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Share a Meal with the Men of Covenant Community

In the spirit of this Lenten season, please think about bringing dinner to the men of Covenant Community on a Monday night. Meals can either be shared with the men inside the residence or they can be dropped off sometime during the day. Available dates are May 9 and 16. Thank you.
