Collect of the Day |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

The First Lesson | Acts 16:9–15

During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, “Come over to Macedonia and help us.” When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them.

We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days. On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there. A certain woman named Lydia, a worshiper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul. When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home." And she prevailed upon us.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Psalm | 67

The people remain seated.

The choir sings the refrain, and the people repeat.

The verses are sung by the choir.

Let the peo - ples praise you, O God, let all the peo - ples praise you.
Let the peo - ples praise you, O God, let all the peo - ples praise you.

May God be merciful to us and bless us, show us the light of his countenance and come to us.

Let your ways be known upon earth,
your saving health among all nations.

Refrain

Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you.

Let the nations be glad and sing for joy,
for you judge the peoples with equity and guide all the nations upon earth.

Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you.

Refrain

The earth has brought forth her increase;
may God, our own God, give us his blessing.

May God give us his blessing, and may all the ends of the earth stand in awe of him.

Refrain

The Second Lesson | Revelation 21:10, 22–22:5

In the spirit the angel carried me away to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God.

I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb. The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. Its gates will never be shut by day-- and there will be no night there. People will bring into it the glory and the honor of the nations. But nothing unclean will enter it, nor anyone who practices abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. Nothing accursed will be found there any more. But the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him; they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. And there will be no more night; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The Gospel | John 5:1–9

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

After Jesus healed the son of the official in Capernaum, there was a festival of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

Now in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate there is a pool, called in Hebrew Beth-zatha, which has five porticoes. In these lay many invalids—blind, lame, and paralyzed. One man was there who had been ill for thirty-eight years. When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had been there a long time, he said to him, “Do you want to be made well?” The sick man answered him, “Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; and while I am making my way, someone else steps down ahead of me.” Jesus said to him, “Stand up, take your mat and walk.” At once the man was made well, and he took up his mat and began to walk. Now that day was a sabbath.

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon | The people are seated at the preacher’s invitation.

The Rev. Dr. Simon J. Mainwaring

A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

The Nicene Creed |

The people stand.

Celebrant Let us affirm our faith using the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism
for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People |

The people stand or kneel for the prayers.

Intercessor Grace to you and peace from Jesus Christ, the firstborn of the dead. The Lord has acted; let us rejoice and be glad, saying, “You are our God;
People and we thank you.”

Intercessor Almighty God, you have given your Church the ministry of reconciliation: grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ’s Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith. You are our God;
People and we thank you.

Intercessor Ruler of the kings of the earth, Lord Jesus, your word is a word of peace: speak forth salvation in a weary world. You are our God;
People and we thank you.

Intercessor All you do, O Lord, is marvelous in our eyes: give us a respect for all you have made. (Thanksgivings will be read aloud). You are our God;
People and we thank you.

Intercessor Mighty Savior, raise up faithful witnesses in our community, that our neighbors might come to know that you love them and have freed them from the power of sin. In the Anglican Communion, we pray for the Province of the Episcopal Church of South Sudan. In our Diocese, we pray for Holy Trinity in Decatur. In our parish, we give thanks for those who tend the buildings and grounds in which we gather, that our buildings, as much as our community, may speak of God’s grace and love. You are our God;
People and we thank you.

Intercessor O Lord, you are good; your mercy endures forever: be the strength of the weak and of those who are sick. (The names of the sick will be read aloud). You are our God
People and we thank you.

Intercessor Alpha and Omega, you do not hand your beloved ones over to death, but promise life eternal to all those baptized into your Son: to you be glory and dominion forever. (The names of those who have died will be read aloud). You are our God;
People and we thank you.

Concluding Collect |

Celebrant

Hasten, O God, the coming of your kingdom; and grant that we your servants, who now live by faith, may with joy behold your Son at his coming in glorious majesty; even Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

Confession and Absolution |

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

The people stand or kneel for the confession.

Celebrant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Peace |

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The people exchange a sign of God's peace, and are seated.

Announcements |

Your financial support helps us participate in God's work in the world. If you would like to contribute to the Sunday offering, we invite you to place your donation in the offering plate, or scan the code to the right with your phone to give electronically.

Moving Up Ceremony

We pray for our rising 3rd and 5th graders as they mark the milestone of transition into a new formation class.

The congregation is invited to sign their Bibles after the service.

The Holy Communion

Offertory Anthem |

“Still, still with thee”

Fred Gramann (b. 1950)

Still, still with Thee, when purple morning breaketh,
When the bird waketh, and the shadows flee;
Fairer than morning, lovelier than daylight,
Dawns the sweet consciousness I am with Thee.

Alone with Thee amid the mystic shadows,
The solemn hush of nature newly born;
Alone with Thee in breathless adoration,
In the calm dew and freshness of the morn.

Still, still with Thee! as to each newborn morning
A fresh and solemn splendor still is given,
So does this blessed consciousness, awaking,
Breathe each day nearness unto Thee and heaven.

So shall it be at last, in that bright morning,
When the soul waketh, and life's shadows flee;
O in that hour, fairer than daylight dawning,
Shall rise the glorious thought, I am with Thee.

Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer 2 |

Celebrant
The Lord be with you.

People
And al - so with you.

Celebrant
Lift up your hearts.

People
We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant God of blessing, we thank you always for making us in your image;
People To serve the peace of all creation.

Celebrant You shared your name with our mothers and fathers: Sarah and Abraham, who left their home

People And became a blessing to all nations.

Celebrant Moses and Miriam,
who went through sea and wilderness

People To the place of revelation;

Celebrant Deborah and Samson, who gave hope and justice

People To a people ruled by fear;

Celebrant Ruth and Jonah, who went to foreign soil

People And found a God who loves the stranger.

Celebrant From our ancestors in faith came Jesus, the son of promise to fulfill the law, embody your love, and draw all people to himself. He accepted death to break its fearful hold; he was raised to life to share it in abundance;

People He comes again to break the bread and pour the wine of hope.

Celebrant Therefore, with all the people whose story you have shaped, with women and men of faith in every part of the world we glory in your generous love and sing in praise of you:

(organ)

Ho - ly, ho - ly, _____ _____ ho - ly, ho - ly, _____ ho - ly Lord God _____ of hosts, _____ Heav - en and earth _____ are _____ filled with your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. _____ Bless - ed is he who _____ comes in the name _____ of the Lord, _____ _____ of the Lord. _____ Ho - san - na _____ in the high - est, Ho - san - na in the high - est. _____

The Celebrant continues

We ask that your Holy Spirit will fall upon us and upon these gifts that these fragile, earthly things may be to us the body and blood of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ; who, on the night he was betrayed, gathered with his faltering friends for a meal that tasted of freedom.

Calling them to his table, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and said: "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

In the same way after supper, he took the cup, saying: "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

As on that night, so here and now he offers himself in touch and taste beyond all words can hold. Great is the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Therefore we come in memory and hope, responding to your call and the promise that echoes from the dawn of all time.

May mind and heart be held by your self-giving love as we stand before the cross, approach the empty tomb and praise the one whose name is lifted high above all earthly power.

Receive our broken offering through your all-powerful grace and bind us in communion with all who share your gifts; through Jesus Christ, in whom all ages and all the worlds are drawn into the ceaseless love of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Whoever you are, wherever you are on your journey, you are welcome at this table.

The people are seated.

Healing prayers are offered in the chapel during communion.

Communion Motet |

“Pilgrims’ Hymn” from The Three Hermits

Stephen Paulus (1949–2014)

Even before we call on Your name
To ask You, O God,
When we seek for the words to glorify You,
You hear our prayer;
Unceasing love, O unceasing love,
Surpassing all we know.
Glory to the Father,
and to the Son,
And to the Holy Spirit.

Even with darkness sealing us in,
We breathe Your name,
And through all the days that follow
so fast,
We trust in You;
Endless Your grace, O endless
Your grace,
Beyond all mortal dream.
Both now and forever,
And unto ages and ages,
Amen.

Post Communion Prayer |

The people stand.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessing | Celebrant

The God of peace, who through the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ has given us the victory, give you joy and peace in your faith; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you this day and forever more. Amen.

Closing Hymn | LEVAS 20

“When we all get to heaven”

1. Sing the won-drous love of Je - sus, sing His mer - cy and His grace;

- 5:30 p.m. Holy Eucharist Rite II

Our regular Sunday worship schedule will resume on Sunday, August 21 and Noonday Prayer will resume on Monday, August 24.

Stump the Organist

Every Sunday of the summer (10 am service only, beginning Memorial Day weekend, ends August 14)

Come to church a little early and play Stump the Organist! Beginning Sunday, May 29, we will try something new at our 10 am service. At 9:50 we will open up the floor to your hymn requests, singing as many as we can until the start of the service. Come prepared to call out the number of your favorite hymn and see if you can "stump the organist."

Giving

May is Remember the Church Offering month

Remember how we used to bring some cash for the offering plate to church?

Let's remember to tuck a few dollars in our pockets for Sunday morning.

The Varsity next door may have a sign out "We are a cashless facility" but the church welcomes each and every gift. Join me and put some money in the plate instead of giving the "No Thanks" hand when the plate gets passed.

Give a Gift or Make a Pledge Payment Today:

1. Online at allsaintsatlanta.org/give
2. Mail a check to All Saints' Church, 634 W. Peachtree St., Atlanta, GA 30308
3. Put a check or cash into the offering plate during the services
4. Text to Give: text AllSaintsAtlanta to 73256
5. Gift stocks or securities

Children's Ministries

Vacation Bible School - Water, Water Everywhere!

Monday through Friday, May 30 – June 3, The Attic, Kennedy Courtyard

Water is so important in God's Word that it is mentioned 722 times in the Bible, more often than faith, hope, prayer, and worship. Join us for a water-themed Vacation Bible School 9:00 a.m. -12:30 p.m., with aftercare 12:30-5:00 p.m. each day. Rising kindergartners through 5th grade are welcome, 6th - 12th grade are welcome to be counselors. Come be in relationship with our young Saints at our Water, Water Everywhere Vacation Bible School as a volunteer with games, science, crafts, and story time. Or help us with snacks or decorating or cleaning up. You can help one or two days or all week! We can't do it without our church family and you will get to know some folks you may not usually hang out with at church. If you are having trouble with the online form, I will have a paper registration form in the courtyard this Sunday. We need to know numbers by this Sunday, so please sign up as soon as possible. Email Kathy Roberts at kr Roberts@allsaintsatlanta.org for more information.

Adult Formation

The Journey with the Rev. Karen Evans

Mondays, 11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m., on Zoom

The Bible is full of journeys: short, long, searching, moving, fleeing and more. Things happen on these journeys: lives are changed, new directions are found; and through it all, "the feeling remains that God is on the journey, too" -Teresa of Avila. The Journey is a Bible study exploring the biblical journeys and what they have to say about our own.

Service

American Red Cross Blood Drive at All Saints' Sunday, July 17, 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., Ellis Hall

Donate life-saving blood! The American Red Cross is facing a severe shortage as hospital demand continues to outpace donations. Please consider signing up for an appointment during the blood drive at All Saints' on Sunday, July 17: <https://www.redcrossblood.org/give.html/drive-results?zipSponsor=allSaintsatlanta>

Donate Summer Clothing to Threads

We invite donations of new or gently used children's clothing and new shoes for summer; a donation barrel is located in the upper level of the parking garage behind the security booth. Questions? Contact Lori Guarisco at threads@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Share a Meal with the Men of Covenant Community

Please remember the men of Covenant Community by bringing dinner on a Monday night. Meals can either be shared with the men inside the residence or they can be dropped off sometime during the day. Available dates are: May 23 and 30. Thank you.

General

Church Office Closed

The office will be closed for the Memorial Day holiday on Monday, May 30.

Grace Notes

Thank you, Geoff and Carmen Pope, for hosting the Newcomer event at their home May 12.

Vestry Notes

All Saints' Vestry met on April 24, 2022, in person and by Zoom. Following a time for centering prayer, Mary Jo Bryan gave the Clerk's Report. Nancy Dodson, in Sheldon Taylor's absence, provided the Treasurer's Report, highlighting that pledge payments are ahead for the year, that the church received payments for third-party use of Ellis Hall and parking, and that an insurance claim has been made for the water heater that burst in the Pritchett Center. Dan Pennywell gave an update on the Vestry nominating committee, and Simon Mainwaring announced the formation of the Leadership Team that will lead the parish in a year-long period of discernment into the future of the church's mission and ministries. The Leadership Team will be chaired by Lynda Herrig, and consists of five Vestry members and six at-large members. The Leadership Team will be assisted by the Rev. Dr. Dwight Zscheile, in a consultant's role for the year. The Vestry also discussed the plans for Simon Mainwaring's sabbatical during the summer of 2023 and how the parish might use the time for its own reflections and renewal. The Vestry elected Alvin Moore and Elizabeth Diedrich to fill the unexpired terms of Charlene Smith-Stewart, who passed away and Des Dorsey, who resigned. The annual meeting is set for Sunday, May 15, 2022, and the next Vestry meeting is set for Monday, May 16, 2022 at 4:30 PM.
