Collect of the Day |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of your divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

The First Lesson | Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31

Does not wisdom call,
and does not understanding raise her voice?
On the heights, beside the way,
at the crossroads she takes her stand;
beside the gates in front of the town,
at the entrance of the portals she cries out:
“To you, O people, I call,
and my cry is to all that live.
The Lord created me at the beginning of his work,
the first of his acts of long ago.
Ages ago I was set up,
at the first, before the beginning of the earth.
When there were no depths I was brought forth,
when there were no springs abounding with water.
Before the mountains had been shaped,
before the hills, I was brought forth—
when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world’s first bits of soil.
When he established the heavens, I was there,
when he drew a circle on the face of the deep,
when he made firm the skies above,
when he established the fountains of the deep,
when he assigned to the sea its limit,
so that the waters might not transgress his command,
when he marked out the foundations of the earth,
then I was beside him, like a master worker;
and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always,
rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.”

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The people remain seated. The choir sings the refrain, and the people repeat. The verses are sung by all.

Refrain

Chant: Jason West

O Lord our / Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the / world!

Out of the mouths of infants and children your majesty is praised above the / heavens. *
You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries to quell the enemy and the a- / venger.

When I consider your heavens, the work of your / fingers, *
the moon and the stars you have set in their / courses,

What is man that you should be mindful of / him? *
the son of man that you should seek him / out?

Refrain

You have made him but little lower than the / angels; *
you adorn him with glory and / honor;

You give him mast'ry over the works of your / hands; *
you put all things under his / feet:

All sheep and / oxen, *
even the wild beasts of the / field,

The birds of the air, the fish of the / sea, * and whatsoever walks in the paths of the / sea. [2nd part]

O Lord our / Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the / world!

Refrain

The Second Lesson | Romans 5:1–5

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Reader The word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation |

The people stand and sing.

“A Repeating Alleluia”

Calvin Hampton (1938–1984)

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia,
al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

The Gospel | John 16:12–15

Gospeler The holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to the disciples, “I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.”

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon | The people are seated at the preacher’s invitation.

The Rev. Karen P. Evans

A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

The Nicene Creed |

The people stand.

Celebrant Let us affirm our faith using the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People |

The people stand or kneel for the prayers.

Intercessor Friends, we have been baptized into a holy mystery. As Christians, let us pray to God, saying, “Unity in Trinity, bend your ear.

People Trinity in Unity, hear our prayer.”

Intercessor Glory to you, Lord God of our forebears. Guide your Church into all truth by your Holy Spirit. Fill our hearts with hope so that we may fulfill the ministries to which we have been called with faith and boldness. In the Anglican communion, we pray for The Church of the Province of Uganda. In our Diocese, we pray for St. Aidan’s Church in Milton. In our parish, we give thanks for the work God has given us to do. This day we pray a blessing upon those who teach and those who study in our Education for Ministry program. May they proclaim the gospel in their lives both in word and deed. Unity in Trinity, bend your ear.

People Trinity in Unity, hear our prayer.

Intercessor Glory to you, Lord God. You delight in the human race. And so we trust that your heart breaks with the brokenhearted. Comfort all those who suffer, as we pray for those who have died: (The names of those who have died are read aloud). Unity in Trinity, bend your ear.

People Trinity in Unity, hear our prayer.

Intercessor Glory to you, Lord God. You established the heavens and marked out the foundations of the earth. Let all of creation praise you forever. (Thanksgivings are read aloud). Unity in Trinity, bend your ear.

People Trinity in Unity, hear our prayer.

Intercessor Glory to you, Lord God. We pray for our loved ones because our hope is placed in you, and hope placed in you, O God, does not disappoint. Bless and heal those for whom we pray, especially: (The names of the sick are read aloud). Unity in Trinity, bend your ear.

People Trinity in Unity, hear our prayer.

Intercessor Glory to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory. Unity in Trinity, bend your ear.

People Trinity in Unity, hear our prayer.

Concluding Collect |

Celebrant

Lord, hear the prayers of your people; and what we have asked faithfully, grant that we may obtain effectually, to the glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Confession and Absolution |

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

The people stand or kneel for the confession.

Celebrant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Peace |

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The people exchange a sign of God's peace, and are seated.

The Holy Communion

Offertory Anthem |

“Praise ye the Lord”

John Rutter (b. 1945)

Praise ye the Lord,
Praise God in his holiness:
Praise him in the firmament of his power.
Praise him in his noble acts:
Praise him according to his excellent greatness.
Praise him in the sound of the trumpet:
Praise him upon the lute and harp.
Praise him in the cymbals and dances:
Praise him upon the strings and pipe.
Praise him upon the well-tuned cymbals:
Praise him upon the loud cymbals.
Let every thing that hath breath praise the Lord.
Praise the Lord, praise ye the Lord.

Words: Psalm 150

Jacob McDonald, baritone

Eucharistic Prayer B |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them up to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

The presider offers a proper preface for the day.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus | S 130

Setting: Deutsche Messe, Franz Schubert (1797–1828), arr. R. Proulx

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might,
Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might,
hea - ven and earth are full, full of your glo - ry
Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O God,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ, and his Blood of the new covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Fraction Anthem | “Lord, I am not worthy”

Setting: Peter Miller (b. 1946)

Sung by the choir.

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you,
but only say the word and I shall be healed.

who takes away the sins of the world.
Happy are those who are called to his supper.

Communion Meditation |

“With verdure clad the fields appear” from The Creation

Franz Joseph Haydn (1732-1809)

And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit-tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself upon the earth; and it was so.

With verdure clad the fields appear,
Delightful to the ravish'd sense;
By flowers sweet and gay
Enhanced is the charming sight.
Here fragrant herbs their odours shed;
Here shoots the healing plant;
With copious fruit the expanded boughs are hung;
In leafy arches twine the shady groves;
O'er lofty hills majestic forests wave.

Worship

Stump the Organist Every Sunday of the summer (10 am service only, beginning Memorial Day weekend, ends August 14)

Come to church a little early and play Stump the Organist! Beginning Sunday, May 29, we will try something new at our 10 am service. At 9:50 we will open up the floor to your hymn requests, singing as many as we can until the start of the service. Come prepared to call out the number of your favorite hymn and see if you can “stump the organist.”

Giving

Give a Gift to Honor or Remember a Loved One

Did you know you can give a gift to All Saints' in honor of a recent graduate? (or a new couple, birth, baptism, etc.) The average gift is $25. Send a gift and mark it “Memorials and Gifts” fund. Or click this giving link: <https://onrealm.org/AllSaintsEpisco85474/-/form/give/now>. The church will send your honoree a note acknowledging the gift and will list their names in the All Saints' Day bulletin in November. What a great way to lift someone up and support All Saints' too. What does the church use these gifts for? The Memorials and Gifts Fund supplies needed items for our worship life. Recent examples are: Choir robes, clergy vestments, communion kits, re-covering the library chairs and a seasonal banner for the procession. It is much needed and always appreciated here. Thank you!

Special thanks to Charlie Boyd and the Memorials and Gifts Committee: Winifred Davis, Nixon Lowe, Patrick Becker, Edgar Callaway, Wayne Keith, and Lelia Pratt.

Bringing Back the Boon: Reflections from the Legacy and Justice Pilgrimage to Alabama

Sunday, June 19, 9:00 – 9:50 a.m., Ross Room

Come listen and learn as pilgrims share their reflections on the recent Legacy and Justice Pilgrimage to Selma and Montgomery. “The story that we bring back from our journeys is the boon. It is the gift of grace that was passed to us in the heart of our journey.” - from The Art of Pilgrimage by Phil Cousineau.

The Journey with the Rev. Karen Evans Mondays through the end of June, 11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m., on Zoom

The Bible is full of journeys: short, long, searching, moving, fleeing and more. Things happen on these journeys: lives are changed, new directions are found; and through it all, “the feeling remains that God is on the journey, too” -Teresa of Avila. The Journey is a Bible study exploring the biblical journeys and what they have to say about our own.

Service

Welcome a New Family to the United States with Refugee Ministries

The first three months after arrival are often very challenging for a newly arrived refugee family. Many families experience isolation, which we can help alleviate by offering much needed hope and support through hospitality and welcome. We invite volunteers aged 25 and over (who are welcome to bring families and friends, including children, to any outing) to offer three resettlement activities for a new family to be completed over a period of six months. Resettlement activities can include things like trips to the grocery store, outings in the city, orientation to MARTA, learning to use a laundry facility, setting up a bank account, etc. For more information and to volunteer, contact Louisa Merchant at louisam@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Refugee Ministries: Swimming Buddies

Saturdays, June 18, July 23, and August 20, 11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m., various locations

Saturday, September 10, all day, Lake Jackson

Cool off with Refugee Ministries this summer and enjoy some swimming fun in the sun with our refugee friends. This is a great opportunity for families with children, and we can provide service hours for teens. We also need volunteers to transport our refugee friends; drivers must be at least 25 years old. For locations and more information, contact Louisa Merchant at louisam@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Threads Clothing Needs

- We invite donations of new or gently used children's clothing and new shoes for summer. Donation boxes are located on the first floor of the Pritchett Center and in the first floor stairwell between Ellis Hall and Egleston Hall, outside of the choir suite.
- In preparation for a School Uniform Back-to-School giveaway in June, please also consider donating school uniforms during the month of June. We are requesting white, light blue, or navy collared shirts and khaki or navy pants and shorts. All sizes, boys and girls styles are needed.
- Threads also need new sneakers, boys sizes 5-10.
