

All Saints' Episcopal Church

The Third Sunday after Pentecost

THE HOLY EUCHARIST, RITE II

Sunday, June 26, 2022 ♦ 10:00 a.m.

Welcome Home!

Welcome to worship at All Saints'. If this is your first time with us, we invite you to complete a visitor's card and place it in the offering plate. Our website provides current information and access to our digital content: allsaintsatlanta.org. This bulletin contains all you need to join us in worship, everyone is welcome to receive communion at God's table, and the clergy are happy to speak with you at any time. We are delighted you're here – welcome home!

The people stand as the bell tolls.

Opening Acclamation |

Celebrant	Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People	And blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness,
gentleness, and self-control

— Galatians 5:23

Collect of the Day |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have built your Church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone: Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their teaching, that we may be made a holy temple acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

When the Lord was about to take Elijah up to heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal. Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here; for the Lord has sent me as far as Bethel." But Elisha said, "As the Lord lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel.

Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here; for the Lord has sent me to the Jordan." But he said, "As the Lord lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you." So the two of them went on. Fifty men of the company of prophets also went, and stood at some distance from them, as they both were standing by the Jordan. Then Elijah took his mantle and rolled it up, and struck the water; the water was parted to the one side and to the other, until the two of them crossed on dry ground.

When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, "Tell me what I may do for you, before I am taken from you." Elisha said, "Please let me inherit a double share of your spirit." He responded, "You have asked a hard thing; yet, if you see me as I am being taken from you, it will be granted you; if not, it will not." As they continued walking and talking, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two of them, and Elijah ascended in a whirlwind into heaven. Elisha kept watching and crying out, "Father, father! The chariots of Israel and its horsemen!" But when he could no longer see him, he grasped his own clothes and tore them in two pieces.

He picked up the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan. He took the mantle of Elijah that had fallen from him, and struck the water, saying, "Where is the Lord, the God of Elijah?" When he had struck the water, the water was parted to the one side and to the other, and Elisha went over.

The people remain seated and sing the appointed psalm.

The Second Lesson | Galatians 5:1, 13–25

For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery.

For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another. For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another.

Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law. Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.

Gospel Acclamation

The people stand and sing.

“A Repeating Alleluia”

Calvin Hampton (1938–1984)

The Gospel | Luke 9:51–62

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When the days drew near for Jesus to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; but they did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem. When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?" But he turned and rebuked them. Then they went on to another village.

As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." To another he said, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father." But Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." Another said, "I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home." Jesus said to him, "No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon |

Louisa Merchant, Director of Refugee Ministries

The people are seated at the preacher's invitation.

A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

The Nicene Creed |

The people stand.

Celebrant Let us affirm our faith using the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People |

The people stand or kneel for the prayers.

Intercessor If we live by the Spirit, brothers and sisters, let us also be guided by the Spirit. And, guided by the Spirit, let us lift our prayers to the Lord, saying, “We cry aloud to you;
People O God, hear us.”

Intercessor Gracious God, give us the will and the strength to prepare the way for your Kingdom to come. May love heal our factions and peace overcome strife. In the Anglican communion, we pray for the Church in Wales. In our Diocese, we pray for St. Alban’s Church in Eatonton. In our parish, we give thanks for our Refugee Ministries. We ask God’s blessing on all who share in this work, that those whom they serve might be welcomed not as strangers, but as friends. We cry aloud to you;
People O God, hear us.

Intercessor Your paths are in the great waters, mighty Redeemer. We thank you that by the waters of baptism you have made us members of your household. (Thanksgivings are read aloud). We cry aloud to you;
People O God, hear us.

Intercessor Lord Jesus, you rebuked your disciples James and John when they desired the destruction of others. Instill in us gentleness and self-control that we might learn to love even those with whom we strongly disagree. We cry aloud to you;
People O God, hear us.

Intercessor You are the God who works wonders. We offer to you our sincere prayers for our hurting loved ones. Work wonders in their hearts and lives. We pray especially for: (The names of the sick are read aloud). We cry aloud to you;
People O God, hear us.

Intercessor By your strength, O God, you redeem your people. Lead us by your Spirit and make us fit for your heavenly Kingdom. We pray for those who have died, especially: (The names of those who have died are read aloud). We cry aloud to you;
People O God, hear us.

Concluding Collect |

Celebrant Lord, hear the prayers of your people; and what we have asked faithfully, grant that we may obtain effectually, to the glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
People Amen.

Confession and Absolution |

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

The people stand or kneel for the confession.

Celebrant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Peace |

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The people exchange a sign of God's peace, and are seated.

Announcements |

Your financial support helps us participate in God's work in the world. If you would like to contribute to the Sunday offering, we invite you to place your donation in the offering plate, or scan the code to the right with your phone to give electronically.

Blessing

Loving God, time and again you call us to welcome the immigrant and the stranger in our midst. We pray for those who participate in the All Saints' refugee ministry. Lead them in their work, support them in their partnerships, and bless those whom they serve. All this we ask through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

The Holy Communion

Offertory Anthem |

“Will you come and follow me” (The Summons)

Tom Trenney

Will you come and follow me
if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know
and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown?
Will you let my Name be known?
Will you let my life be grown
in you and you in me?

Will you leave your self behind
if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind
and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer
in you and you in me?

Will you let the blinded see
if I but call your name?
Will you set the pris'ner free
and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean,
and do such as this unseen?
And admit to what I mean
in you and you in me?

Will you love the “You” you hide
if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside
and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around through my sight and touch and sound
in you and you in me?

*Lord, your summons echoes true
when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you
and never be the same.
In your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show, thus I'll move and live and grow
in you and you in me.*

Words: John L. Bell (b. 1949) and Graham Maule (b. 1958)

Eucharistic Prayer B |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

The Celebrant offers a proper preface for the day.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might,

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might,

hea - ven and earth are full, full of your glo - ry

Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O God,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ, and his Blood of the new covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Whoever you are, wherever you are on your journey, you are welcome at this table.

The people are seated.

Healing prayers are offered in the chapel during communion.

Sung by the choir.

Draw near with faith.
The gifts of God for the people of God.
Jesus Christ is holy.
Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

Post Communion Prayer |

The people stand.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.. Amen.

Blessing |

Celebrant

May the Spirit of truth lead you into all truth, giving you grace to proclaim the wonderful works of God; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit be upon you now and forever more. Amen

Refugee Ministries Sunday

Join us this Sunday to hear more about Refugee Ministries at All Saints' from our Director of Refugee Ministries, Louisa Merchant. Following the 10:00 a.m. service there will be a reception and a chance to meet some of our refugee friends in Ellis Hall.

Jesus on the Front Page

Sundays, 9:00 - 9:50 a.m., P305/306

Join this ongoing discussion of the news of the day and how we are called as Christians to respond in the public arena, in our private lives, and in our prayers.

Nominations Open for Diocesan Council Delegates

All Saints' is a part of the Episcopal Diocese of Atlanta, which will hold its annual Diocesan Council meeting on Friday, November 11 and Saturday, November 12. We send 5 representatives from a slate of 5 delegates and 5 alternates chosen by the Nominating Committee and presented to the Vestry for approval. Delegates must be confirmed communicants in good standing. Under policy adopted by the Vestry in 2021, those who were delegates to the prior two councils are not eligible to serve again until 2024. Information about Diocesan Council can be found on the Diocesan website (episcopalatlanta.org). If you would like to nominate a parishioner or self-nominate, please send an email to tsage@allsaintsatlanta.org by July 20.

Coming Up

Worship

Stump the Organist

Every Sunday of the summer (10 am service only, beginning Memorial Day weekend, ends August 14)

Come to church a little early and play Stump the Organist! Beginning Sunday, May 29, we will try something new at our 10 am service. At 9:50 we will open up the floor to your hymn requests, singing as many as we can until the start of the service. Come prepared to call out the number of your favorite hymn and see if you can "stump the organist."

Giving

Give a Gift to Honor or Remember a Loved One

Did you know you can give a gift to All Saints' in honor of a recent graduate? (or a new couple, birth, baptism, etc.) The average gift is $25. Send a gift and mark it "Memorials and Gifts" fund. The church will send your honoree a note acknowledging the gift and will list their names in the All Saints' Day bulletin in November. What a great way to lift someone up and support All Saints' too. What does the church use these gifts for? The Memorials and Gifts Fund supplies needed items for our worship life. Recent examples are: Choir robes, clergy vestments, communion kits, re-covering the library chairs and a seasonal banner for the procession. It is much needed and always appreciated here. Thank you!

Special thanks to Charlie Boyd and the Memorials and Gifts Committee: Winifred Davis, Nixon Lowe, Patrick Becker, Edgar Callaway, Wayne Keith, and Lelia Pratt.

The Journey with the Rev. Karen Evans

Mondays through the end of June, 11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m., on Zoom

The Bible is full of journeys: short, long, searching, moving, fleeing and more. Things happen on these journeys: lives are changed, new directions are found; and through it all, "the feeling remains that God is on the journey, too" -Teresa of Avila. The Journey is a Bible study exploring the biblical journeys and what they have to say about our own. June 27 will be our last meeting until August 22.

Jordan Is So Chilly: An Encounter with Lillian Smith, Presented by Actor Brenda Bynum

Sunday, July 10, 11:00 a.m., Ellis Hall

Beloved Atlanta actor Brenda Bynum returns to All Saints' with her stirring, one-woman presentation of the life and work of Lillian Smith, the courageous Southern author who devoted her life to racial justice. Smith's writings called out her fellow White Southerners for racist attitudes and complacency, a "pathology" that damaged Whites and Blacks alike. Her example and Brenda Bynum's art will make for an unforgettable hour in Ellis Hall on Sunday, July 10, following the 10:00 a.m. service.

Y'All Saints: A Day at Six Flags

Saturday, July 2, 10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Rollercoasters and rides are in our future – we are headed to Six Flags! All rising 6th-12th graders are invited to join us for a fun-filled day at Six Flags Over Georgia. We will meet at the church at 10:00 a.m. and meet back at the church around 5:00 p.m. The cost is $40. If any parents would like to chaperone or drive, please contact Hope Westervelt at hwestervelt@allsaintsatlanta.org. Register online on Realm.

Middle School Summer Beach Retreat

July 16-18, Panama City Beach, Florida

We are heading to the beach! All rising 6th-9th graders are invited to join us for a weekend of fun in the sun while also building community and growing in faith. The cost of the weekend is $200 and includes transportation, lodging, food, and all activities. For more information, contact Hope Westervelt and hwestervelt@allsaintsatlanta.org. Register online on Realm.

Parish Life

Kanuga Parish Retreat Registration is Now Open!

Friday, September 30 - Sunday, October 2, Kanuga Conference Center, Hendersonville, NC

We are excited to celebrate the 40th anniversary of our annual parish retreat this year! Please make sure to mark your calendars for Friday, September 30 through Sunday, October 2 for a memorable parish gathering at Kanuga. Registration is now open on Realm. For more information, please reach out to Jill Gossett at jgossett@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Popcorn Theology: "Salam Neighbor"

Friday, July 8, 7:00-9:30 p.m., Ellis Hall

Join us to watch "Salam Neighbor," an award-winning feature documentary and campaign to connect the world to refugees. In an effort to better understand refugee life, two young documentarians spent one month living alongside displaced families in the Za'atari refugee camp. Run time is 75 minutes and there will be subtitles. We'll have time for discussion immediately following the film. Adults and children alike are welcome! Beer, wine, soft drinks, and popcorn will be provided. Feel free to bring your own food and drink.

Saturday Morning Run Group

Saturdays, 8:00-9:30 a.m., meet at the surface parking lot at All Saints'

Morning Run is meeting every Saturday at 8am in the All Saints parking lot. Enjoy a 3-5 mile run at 10-11min/mile pace through midtown. Walkers are welcome as well. Following the run we refresh with a walk to the Spring Street Starbucks. Please contact Timothy Frilingos by email bluefrilingos@gmail.com if you'd like more information or to join. Registration is not required, but it is the best way to get updates in case of inclement weather.

Walk the Labyrinth

Sunday, July 10, 4:30 - 5:30 p.m., Kennedy Courtyard

Labyrinths are beautiful ancient designs found worldwide, symbolizing pilgrimage journeys, a path to God and the Divine. The labyrinth pattern on the 25-foot portable canvas is a small adaptation of the famous 13th century stone labyrinth embedded in the floor of the Chartres Cathedral in France. The labyrinth walks take place in Kennedy Courtyard (rain location: Ellis Hall) and are accompanied by live music. When planning your visit, please allow approximately 20 minutes for your walk.

Service

American Red Cross Blood Drive at All Saints'

Sunday, July 17, 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., Ellis Hall

Donate life-saving blood! The American Red Cross is facing a severe shortage as hospital demand continues to outpace donations. Please consider signing up for an appointment during the blood drive at All Saints' on Sunday, July 17: <https://www.redcrossblood.org/give.html/drive-results?zipSponsor=allsaintsatlanta>. Signups will also be available in Kennedy Courtyard on Sunday mornings.

Refugee Ministries: Swimming Buddies

Saturdays, July 23, and August 20, 11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m., various locations

Saturday, September 10, all day, Lake Jackson

Cool off with Refugee Ministries this summer and enjoy some swimming fun in the sun with our refugee friends. This is a great opportunity for families with children, and we can provide service hours for teens. We also need volunteers to transport our refugee friends; drivers must be at least 25 years old. For locations and more information, contact Louisa Merchant at louisam@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Threads Back-to-School Uniform Giveaway

Thursday, July 14 through Saturday, July 16 and Thursday, July 21 through Saturday, July 23

10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m., Tate Courtyard

Threads is re-opening for a school uniform Back-to-School giveaway and there are many opportunities to volunteer during the event! We need volunteers to work with children as personal shoppers and volunteers to bring children to the shop. Please reach out to Lori Guarisco at threads@allsaintsatlanta.org to find out more information about volunteer needs.

Threads Clothing Needs

- We invite donations of new or gently used children's clothing and new shoes for summer. Donation boxes are located on the first floor of the Pritchett Center and in the first floor stairwell between Ellis Hall and Eggleston Hall.
- In preparation for a School Uniform Back-to-School giveaway in June, please also consider donating school uniforms during the month of June. We are requesting white, light blue, or navy collared shirts and khaki or navy pants and shorts. All sizes, boys and girls styles are needed.
- Threads also need new sneakers, boys sizes 5-10.

Questions? Contact Lori Guarisco at threads@allsaintsatlanta.org

Share a Meal with the Men of Covenant Community

Please continue the All Saints' tradition of providing dinner to the men of Covenant Community on a Monday night. Meals for around 15 people can either be shared with the men inside the residence or they can be dropped off during the day. The available dates are June 27 and July 4. For more information and to sign up, contact Barbara Blender and bblender@bellsouth.net
