Collect of the Day |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Lord of all power and might, the author and giver of all good things: Graft in our hearts the love of your Name; increase in us true religion; nourish us with all goodness; and bring forth in us the fruit of good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

The First Lesson | Jeremiah 2:4-13

Hear the word of the Lord, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel. Thus says the Lord: What wrong did your ancestors find in me that they went far from me, and went after worthless things, and became worthless themselves? They did not say, "Where is the Lord who brought us up from the land of Egypt, who led us in the wilderness, in a land of deserts and pits, in a land of drought and deep darkness, in a land that no one passes through, where no one lives?" I brought you into a plentiful land to eat its fruits and its good things. But when you entered you defiled my land, and made my heritage an abomination. The priests did not say, "Where is the Lord?" Those who handle the law did not know me; the rulers transgressed against me; the prophets prophesied by Baal, and went after things that do not profit. Therefore once more I accuse you, says the Lord, and I accuse your children's children. Cross to the coasts of Cyprus and look, send to Kedar and examine with care; see if there has ever been such a thing. Has a nation changed its gods, even though they are no gods? But my people have changed their glory for something that does not profit. Be appalled, O heavens, at this, be shocked, be utterly desolate, says the Lord, for my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the fountain of living water, and dug out cisterns for themselves, cracked cisterns that can hold no water.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Psalm | 81:1, 10-16 Exultate Deo

The people remain seated and sing the appointed psalm.

Tone VIII.1

Cantor 1 Sing with joy to God our strength *
Lower voices and raise a loud shout to the God of Jacob.

Upper voices 10 I am the Lord your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt and said, *
"Open your mouth wide and I will fill it."

Lower voices 11 And yet my people did not hear my voice, * and Israel would not obey me.

Upper voices 12 So I gave them over to the stubbornness of their hearts, * to follow their own devices.

Lower voices 13 Oh, that my people would listen to me! *
that Israel would walk in my ways!

Uppervoices 14 I should soon subdue their en-e-mies * and turn my hand a-gainst their foes.

Lower voices 15 Those who hate the Lord would cringe be-fore him, *
and their punishment would last for ever.

Upper voices 16 But Israel would I feed with the fin-est wheat * and satisfy him with hon-ey from the rock.

The Second Lesson | Hebrews 13:1-8, 15-16

Let mutual love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured. Let marriage be held in honor by all, and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled; for God will judge fornicators and adulterers. Keep your lives free from the love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, "I will never leave you or forsake you." So we can say with confidence, "The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid. What can anyone do to me?" Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever. Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

Reader	The Word of the Lord.
People	Thanks be to God.

The Gospel | Luke 14:1, 7-14

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely. When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, he told them a parable. "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honor, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, 'Give this person your place,' and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, 'Friend, move up higher'; then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted." He said also to the one who had invited him, "When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon | The Rev. Natosha Reid Rice

The people are seated at the preacher's invitation.

A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

The Nicene Creed |

The people stand.

Celebrant Let us affirm our faith using the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People |

The people stand or kneel for the prayers.

Intercessor Loving God, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
People That we all may be one.

Intercessor Grant that every member of your Church may truly and humbly serve you.
People That your name may be glorified by all people.

Intercessor In the Anglican Communion, we pray for The Anglican Church in Aotearoa, New Zealand, and Polynesia. In our Diocese we pray for the people and clergy of St. Clare's Church in Blairsville. And in our parish, we pray for widows and orphans and for those in any need or trouble. We give thanks for those who participate in our eCare ministry, for their fidelity in intercession on behalf of those in need, for their gifts in the kitchen, and for the meals they deliver. In their acts of care may they make manifest God's love to those they serve. We pray for all bishop's, priests, and deacons;
People That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and sacraments.

Intercessor We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world.
People That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Intercessor Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
People That our works may find favor in your sight.

Intercessor I ask your prayers for those who are sick (The names of the sick will be read aloud). Are there others in need of prayer? Lord, have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
People That they may be delivered from their distress.

Intercessor I ask your prayers for those who have died (The names of those who have died will be read aloud). Are there others who have died? Lord, give to the departed eternal rest;
People Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Intercessor We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
People May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Concluding Collect |

Celebrant Lord, hear the prayers of your people: and what we have asked faithfully, grant that we obtain effectually, to the glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
People Amen.

Confession and Absolution |

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

The people stand or kneel for the confession.

Celebrant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Peace |

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The people exchange a sign of God's peace and are seated.

The Holy Communion

Offertory Anthem |

Richard Farrant (c. 1525-1580)

“Lord, for thy tender mercy’s sake”
Lord, for thy tender mercy's sake,
lay not our sins to our charge,
but forgive that is past,
and give us grace to amend our sinful lives.
To decline from sin and incline to virtue,
that we may walk in a perfect heart before thee,
now and evermore.
Amen.

Words from J. Bull's Christian Prayers and Holie Meditations

Presentation Hymn |

The people stand.

“To give and give, and give again”

Morning Song

To give and give, and give a - gain, what God hath giv - en thee;
to spend thy - self nor count the cost; to serve right glo - rious - ly the God who gave all worlds that are, and all that are to be.

Eucharistic Prayer A |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them up to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

The Celebrant offers a proper preface for the day.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus | S 125

Setting: A Community Mass, Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry.
Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Ho - san - na in the high - est, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues.

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and maker and of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O God,

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, Almighty God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Savior. By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Come enjoy Latin feels, gypsy bossas and vales, European melodies, and of course, the beauty of our courtyard during a lunchtime concert. Tickets are $10. Bring your own lunch or purchase a delicious Indian meal from NaanStop for $13.99 at the gate.

Make New Friends with Foyer Groups

One of the very best ways to get to know fellow parishioners in a big church like All Saints' is through small and informal dinner gatherings at one another's homes. The groups formed are a great mix—single, married, and various ages. Many close friendships have been formed through these great dinner gatherings. It's a perfect, low-key way to make connections. Signup at the Parish Life table on Sunday mornings. For more information contact Barbara Blender at bblender@bellsouth.net or Sherry Collins at Sherry_collins@bellsouth.net

Service

Refugee Ministries: Swimming Buddies

Saturday, September 10, all day, Lake Jackson
Cool off with Refugee Ministries this summer and enjoy some swimming fun in the sun with our refugee friends. This is a great opportunity for families with children, and we can provide service hours for teens. We also need volunteers to transport our refugee friends; drivers must be at least 25 years old. For locations and more information, contact Louisa Merchant at louisam@allsaintsatlanta.org

Threads Clothing Needs

We invite donations of new or gently used children's clothing and new shoes for summer. Donation boxes are located on the first floor of the Pritchett Center and in the first-floor stairwell between Ellis Hall and Egleston Hall.

We are still taking donations of school uniforms in preparation for the new school year! We are requesting white, light blue, or navy collared shirts and khaki or navy pants and shorts. All sizes, boys and girls styles are needed. Threads also need new sneakers, boys sizes 5-10.

Questions? Contact Lori Guarisco at threads@allsaintsatlanta.org

Share a Meal with the Men of Covenant Community

For the past 25 years since the founding of Covenant Community, All Saints' parishioners have generously provided dinner on Monday nights for its residents. This has always meant so much to the men of this residential drug treatment facility. Bring dinner yourself or with family, with friends or co-workers. What a great way to offer your support! Meals for around 15 people can either be shared with the men inside the residence or they can be dropped off during the day. Available dates are August 29 and September 5. To volunteer or for more information, contact Barbara Blender at bblender@bellsouth.net

Volunteer with Midtown Assistance Center

Midtown Assistance Center (MAC) is looking for volunteers! If you are interested in helping in the food pantry or assisting clients, please visit the MAC website at www.midtownassistancecenter.org. With the incredible success of the Door Dash partnership getting food to those in need, MAC's food pantry needs replenishment! We are specifically asking for beans, canned and dry - baked, black, lima, garbanzo, kidney, pork or pinto beans. Other high need items include plastic grocery bags, vegetable oil (32 oz or smaller), ramen noodles, men's and women's deodorant/antiperspirants and dish soap (small size). Items can be dropped off at MAC during business hours or placed in the MAC bin in the first floor stairwell between Egleston Hall and the Parish House.
