The First Lesson | Jeremiah 4:11-12, 22-28

At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem: A hot wind comes from me out of the bare heights in the desert toward my poor people, not to winnow or cleanse-- a wind too strong for that. Now it is I who speak in judgment against them. "For my people are foolish, they do not know me; they are stupid children, they have no understanding. They are skilled in doing evil, but do not know how to do good." I looked on the earth, and lo, it was waste and void; and to the heavens, and they had no light. I looked on the mountains, and lo, they were quaking, and all the hills moved to and fro. I looked, and lo, there was no one at all, and all the birds of the air had fled. I looked, and lo, the fruitful land was a desert, and all its cities were laid in ruins before the Lord, before his fierce anger. For thus says the Lord: The whole land shall be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end. Because of this the earth shall mourn, and the heavens above grow black; for I have spoken, I have purposed; I have not relented nor will I turn back.

Reader            The Word of the Lord.
People             Thanks be to God.

Psalm | 14 Dixit insipiens

The people remain seated.

The choir sings the refrain, and the people repeat. The verses are sung by the choir.

Refrain

1 The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God." *
All are corrupt and commit abominable acts;
there is none who does any good.

2 The Lord looks down from heaven upon us all, *
to see if there is any who is wise, if there is one who seeks after God.

3 Every one has proved faithless;
all alike have turned bad; *
there is none who does good; no, not one.

4 Have they no knowledge, all those evildoers *
who eat up my people like bread and do not call upon the Lord?

Refrain

5 See how they tremble with fear, *
because God is in the company of the righteous.

6 Their aim is to confound the plans of the afflicted, *
but the Lord is their refuge.

7 Oh, that Israel's deliverance would come out of Zion! *
when the Lord restores the fortunes of his people, Jacob will rejoice and Israel be glad.

Refrain

The Gospel | Luke 15:1-10

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

All the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to Jesus. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, "This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them." So he told them this parable: "Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.' Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance. "Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.' Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.

Thanksgiving over the Water |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant

We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, Father, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Baptism |

Celebrant N., I baptize you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Celebrant N., you are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own forever. Amen.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, we thank you that by water and the Holy Spirit you have bestowed upon these your servants the forgiveness of sin, and have raised them to the new life of grace. Sustain them, O Lord, in your Holy Spirit. Give them an inquiring and discerning hearth, the courage and will to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works Amen.

Let us welcome the newly baptized.

The Holy Communion

Offertory Anthem |

Anne Dudley (b. 1956)

“Greater love”

Greater love hath no man than he who for his friend
lay down his life,
and his name shall be forever beloved,
and his sacrifice forever prais'd.
Though we may no longer behold him
in our hearts he liveth on;
and the light may grow dark,
yet time will hold a flame forever more.

Greater hope have I none
than to a state of grace I may return, and my trust shall be forever restored
and my heart be forever healed.
Though pass we through this vale of darkness
as our faith begins to fail, yet the light will abide and guide us safely home now and forever more.

Words inspired by John 15–13

Presentation Hymn | 397

the Son, and him who reigns with them in high - est hea - ven, e - ter - nal, Tri - une God, whom earth and heaven a - dore;
for thus it was, is now, and shall be, ev - er - more.

Eucharistic Prayer A |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

The Celebrant offers a proper preface for the day.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus | S 125

Setting: A Community Mass, Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry.
Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Ho - san - na in the high - est, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues.

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and maker and of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O God,

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, Almighty God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Savior. By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Giving

Rooted Here and Growing Outward

The 2023 Annual Canvass kicks off on Sunday, September 11

Over the next eight weeks we will remind everyone that it is time to make your pledge commitment for next year. We are rooted here in so many ways: through the ministries we participate in, through our worship together, and through our giving which sustains this community. We are also growing outward and into our city with our core ministries and faith in action in our city. The Annual Canvass giving is for the operational budget we manage each year. It pays for mission and ministry, it pays the salaries of people who keep the church running, it pays for our buildings and grounds, and so much more. Please make a generous commitment to all that we have together. Let's face this future together. Thank you!

Anne and Charlie Henn

Make New Friends with Foyer Groups

One of the very best ways to get to know fellow parishioners in a big church like All Saints' is through informal, small dinner group gatherings at one another's homes. The groups formed are a great mix—single, married, families with children, various ages and stages. Signups will be at the Parish Life table until mid-September or you can register online at the All Saints' website. For more information contact Barbara Blender at bblender@bellsouth.net or Sherry Collins at sherry\_collins@bellsouth.net.

Service

September Parish Wide Threads FALL Clothing Drive

- Requesting donations of gently used or new Children's clothing for both Boys and Girls, infants through size 18 and small adult clothing in preparation for RE-Opening Threads for in-shop shopping in October. The School Uniform Event was a huge success, with 400 children served with clothing and shoes. However, that left Threads with low inventory, so we need a clothing drive now!
- Donation boxes are located on the first floor of the Pritchett Center and in the first-floor stairwell between Ellis Hall and Egleston Hall.
- Please consider talking to neighbors and family and asking them to donate too! You may also think about involving your children's extracurricular groups, scouts, or sports teams as well.

Questions? Contact Lori Guarisco at threads@allsaintsatlanta.org

Share a Meal with the Men of Covenant Community

For the past 25 years since the founding of Covenant Community, All Saints' parishioners have generously provided dinner on Monday nights for its residents. This has always meant so much to the men of this residential drug treatment facility. Bring dinner yourself or with family, with friends or co-workers. What a great way to offer your support! Meals for around 15 people can either be shared with the men inside the residence or they can be dropped off during the day. Available dates are September 12 and September 19. To volunteer or for more information, contact Barbara Blender at bblender@bellsouth.net.
