

All Saints' Episcopal Church

The Fifteenth Sunday After Pentecost

THE HOLY EUCHARIST, RITE II

Sunday, September 18, 2022 ☙ 11:15 a.m.

Welcome Home!

Welcome to worship at All Saints'. If this is your first time with us, we invite you to complete a visitor's card and place it in the offering plate. Our website provides current information and access to our digital content: allsaintsatlanta.org. This bulletin contains all you need to join us in worship, everyone is welcome to receive communion at God's table, and the clergy are happy to speak with you at any time. We are delighted you're here – welcome home!

Prelude | Berceuse

Louis Vierne (1870-1937)

The people stand as the bell tolls.

Opening Acclamation |

Celebrant	Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People	And blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone.

~ 1 Timothy 2:1

Collect for Purity |

Celebrant Praying together,

Celebrant and People

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit; that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and peace to his peo-ple on earth. Lord God, heaven-ly King, al-might-y God and Fa-ther, we wor-ship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glo-ry. Lord Je-sus Christ, on-ly Son of the Fa-ther, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us; you are seat-ed at the right hand of the Fa-ther; re-ceive our prayer. For you a-lone are the Ho-ly One, you a-lone are the Lord, you a-lone are the Most High, Je-sus Christ, with the Ho-ly Spi-rit, in the glo-ry of God the Fa-ther. A-men.

Collect of the Day |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Grant us, Lord, not to be anxious about earthly things, but to love things heavenly; and even now, while we are placed among things that are passing away, to hold fast to those that shall endure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

The First Lesson | Jeremiah 8:18-9:1

My joy is gone, grief is upon me, my heart is sick. Hark, the cry of my poor people from far and wide in the land: "Is the Lord not in Zion? Is her King not in her?" ("Why have they provoked me to anger with their images, with their foreign idols?") "The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved." For the hurt of my poor people I am hurt, I mourn, and dismay has taken hold of me. Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then has the health of my poor people not been restored? O that my head were a spring of water, and my eyes a fountain of tears, so that I might weep day and night for the slain of my poor people!

Reader	The Word of the Lord.
People	Thanks be to God.

Psalm | 79:1-9 Deus, venerunt

Plainsong: Tonus Peregrinus
adapt. David Hurd (b. 1950)

Sung by the choir. The people remain seated.

- 1 O God, the heathen have come into your inheritance;
they have profaned your holy temple; *
they have made Jerusalem a heap of rubble.
- 2 They have given the bodies of your servants as food for the birds of the air, * and the flesh of your faithful ones to the beasts of the field.
- 3 They have shed their blood like water on every side of Jerusalem, *
and there was no one to bury them.
- 4 We have become a reproach to our neighbors, *
an object of scorn and derision to those around us.
- 5 How long will you be angry, O Lord? *
will your fury blaze like fire for ever?
- 6 Pour out your wrath upon the heathen who have not known you * and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon your Name.
- 7 For they have devoured Jacob *
and made his dwelling a ruin.
- 8 Remember not our past sins;
let your compassion be swift to meet us; *
for we have been brought very low.
- 9 Help us, O God our Savior, for the glory of your Name; *
deliver us and forgive us our sins, for your Name's sake.

The Second Lesson | An Epistle from the All Saints' Community

A member of our community reads a letter describing the spiritual practice of generosity.

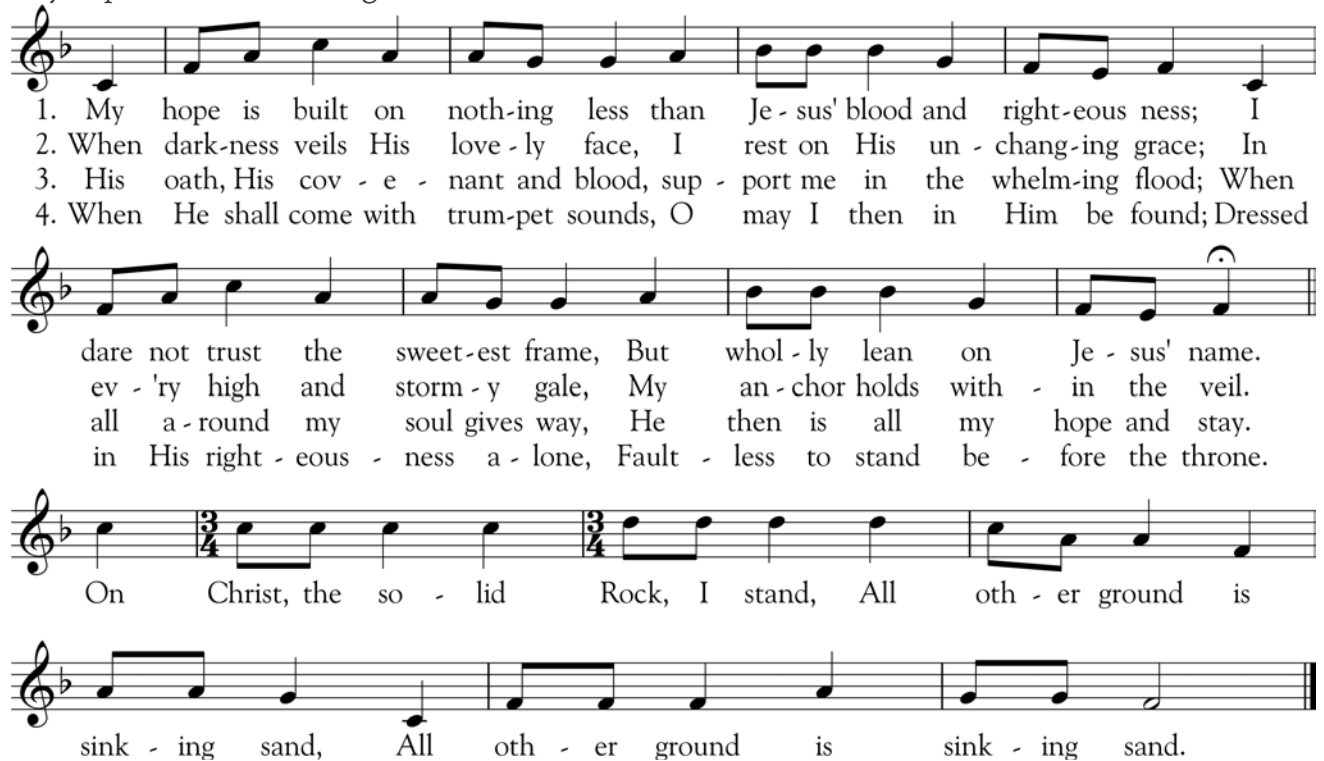

Sequence Hymn | LEVAS 99

The people stand and sing.

The Gospel | Luke 16:1-13

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to the disciples, "There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. So he summoned him and said to him, 'What is this that I hear about you? Give me an accounting of your management, because you cannot be my manager any longer.' Then the manager said to himself, 'What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.' So, summoning his master's debtors one by one, he asked the first, 'How much do you owe my master?' He answered, 'A hundred jugs of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.' Then he asked another, 'And how much do you owe?' He replied, 'A hundred containers of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your bill and make it eighty.' And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly; for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light. And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone, they may welcome you into the eternal homes. "Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon | The Rev. Nontombi Naomi Tutu

The people are seated at the preacher's invitation.

A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

The Nicene Creed |

The people stand.

Celebrant Let us affirm our faith using the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People |

The people stand or kneel for the prayers.

Intercessor Loving God, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
People That we all may be one.

Intercessor Grant that every member of your Church may truly and humbly serve you.
People That your name may be glorified by all people.

Intercessor In the Anglican Communion, we pray for The Episcopal Anglican Church of Brazil. In our Diocese we pray for the people and clergy of St. David's Church in Roswell. And in our parish, we give thanks for the rich and varied life in ministry which we share in this parish, and we ask that we may listen for the Spirit's prompting in us for how we might be a pastoral minister in this year ahead. We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
People That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and sacraments.

Intercessor We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world.
People That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Intercessor Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
People That our works may find favor in your sight.

Intercessor I ask your prayers for those who are sick (The names of the sick will be read aloud). Are there others in need of prayer? Lord, have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
People That they may be delivered from their distress.

Intercessor I ask your prayers for those who have died (The names of those who have died will be read aloud). Are there others who have died? Lord, give to the departed eternal rest;
People Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Intercessor We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
People May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Concluding Collect |

Celebrant Lord, hear the prayers of your people: and what we have asked faithfully, grant that we obtain effectually, to the glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
People Amen.

Confession and Absolution |

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

The people stand or kneel for the confession.

Celebrant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Peace |

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The people exchange a sign of God's peace and are seated.

Announcements |

Your financial support helps us participate in God's work in the world. If you would like to contribute to the Sunday offering, we invite you to place your donation in the offering plate, or scan the code to the right with your phone to give electronically.

The Holy Communion

Offertory Anthem |

Christopher Tye (c. 1505 – c. 1573)

“Give almes of thy goods
Give almes of thy goods,
and turn never thy face from any poor man,
and then the face of the Lord shall not be turned away from thee.

Words: Tobit 4:7

Presentation Hymn | 397

The people stand.

“All praise and thanks to God”

Nun danket alle Gott

All praise and thanks to God the Fa - ther now be giv - en, the Son, and him who reigns with them in high - est hea - ven,
e - ter - nal, Tri - une God, whom earth and heaven a - dore;
for thus it was, is now, and shall be, ev - er - more.

Eucharistic Prayer A |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

The Celebrant offers a proper preface for the day.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might,
 hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry.
 Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
 Ho - san - na in the high - est, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues.

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and maker and of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O God,

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, Almighty God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Savior. By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Whoever you are, wherever you are on your journey, you are welcome at this table.

The people are seated.

Healing prayers are offering in the chapel during communion.

Agnus Dei |

Setting: A Community Mass, R. Proulx

organ

Lamb of God, you take a-way the sins of the world, have mer-cy on us.

Lamb of God, you take a-way the sins of the world, have mer-cy on us.

Lamb of God, you take a-way the sins of the world, grant us peace.

"Love bade me welcome" from Five Mystical Songs

Love bade me welcome: yet my soul drew back.
 Guiltie of dust and sinne.
 But quick-ey'd Love, observing me grow slack
 From my first entrance in,
 Drew nearer to me, sweetly questioning
 If I lack'd anything.
 A guest, I answer'd, worthy to be here:
 Love said, You shall be he.
 I the unkinde, ungrateful? Ah, my deare,
 I cannot look on thee.
 Love took my hand, and smiling did reply,
 Who made the eyes but I?
 Truth Lord, but I have marr'd them: let my shame
 Go where it doth deserve.
 And know you not, sayes Love, who bore the blame?
 My deare, then I will serve.
 You must sit down, sayes Love, and taste my meat:
 So I did sit and eat.

Words: George Herbert (1593–1633)

The people stand.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and people

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessing |

Celebrant

God the Holy Trinity make you strong in faith and love, defend you on every side, and guide you in truth and peace; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit be upon you this day and forever more. Amen.

Today

America the Beautiful: A Bigger Table

10:20 – 11:05 a.m., Ellis Hall

Join co-chairs of the Peoplestown Partnership, Nadia Fountain, Joe Crespino, Kenya Thompson, and Alison Johnson to engage in conversation with saints of all ages and backgrounds as we learn to listen to the stories of others and how they can change us and our views of the world we share.

Pastoral Ministries Fair

10:20 – 11:05 a.m., Kennedy Courtyard

Interested in our pastoral care ministries at All Saints? Stop by on your way through the courtyard to learn more about each of our lay pastoral care ministries. We will have tables set up with food and representatives from each ministry to answer questions.

Jesus on the Front Page

Sundays, 10:20 – 11:05 a.m., P305/306

Join this ongoing discussion of the news of the day and how we are called as Christians to respond in the public arena, in our private lives, and in our prayers.

Nursery & Newly Baptized Picnic

12:30 – 1:30 p.m., Pritchett Center Playground

Come join us on the playground for a lite bite, playing with friends, and meeting folks at the same stage of life as your family. It is tough to meet each other as we drop off kids, diaper bags, and dash out to make it to church on time. So come to the 11:15 service and stay to meet each other and your kids' new church friends!

Bank of America Parking is Available

The overflow parking at the Bank of America building is available off North Ave. The parking lot will open at 8:30 a.m. on Sunday mornings.

Sunday Night Live: Outdoor Games & Compline

6:00-7:30 p.m., The Attic (3rd floor of the Pritchett Center)

Sunday Night Live is our youth group for all youth grades 6-12. Join us at 6:00 p.m. for dinner, outdoor games, and a brief service of Compline (night prayer).

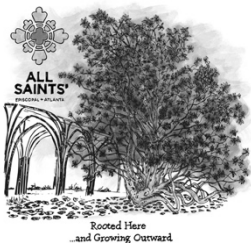

Giving

Welcome to Canvass 2023: Rooted Here and Growing Outward

Q: How do I decide how much to pledge for 2023?

A: Offer a commitment that is meaningful to YOU. For many of us, our pledge is a way to establish the importance that our church community has in our lives. For others it is a realization that to run a vibrant parish like All Saints' requires that we all make a significant contribution.

Q: I give money when the offering plate is passed during worship. Is it really important that I make a pledge for 2023?

A: Pledge commitments are the only way our finance committee can design a budget and plan for 2023. Collectively our pledges add up to what we are able to do each year. Every pledge matters!

Q: What is the easiest way to make a pledge?

A: Scan this QR code. If you don't have a secure Realm account, open one and then make your pledge. It's as easy as that!

There are many ways to make your pledge:

1. Online at allsaintsatlanta.org/give
2. Mail a check to All Saints' Church, 634 W. Peachtree St., Atlanta, GA 30308
3. Put a check or cash into the offering plate during the services
4. Text to Give: text AllSaintsAtlanta to 73256
5. Gift stocks or securities

For questions, contact Ellen Hayes, Director of Development, at ehayes@allsaintsatlanta.org

This Week

Novel Theology

Wednesday, September 21, 7:00 p.m., on Zoom

This month, we will be reading Things Fall Apart by Chinua Achebe, and the discussion will be facilitated by Sarah Edman. The link for our Zoom meeting is sent out over our listserv. If you are not on the listserv, please contact Amelia Harmon at amelia.tuttle9@gmail.com to be added.

Popcorn Theology: Adam's Apples

Friday, September 23, 7:00 – 9:30 p.m. Ross Room

Join us to watch "Adam's Apples," a Danish film by Anders Thomas Jensen. "Designed to elicit as many gasps as laughs, Jensen's pitch-black comedy offers an audaciously skewed take on good vs. evil." This film is for adults only. We'll have time for discussion immediately following the film. Feel free to bring your own food and drink. Popcorn will be provided.

Middle School Attic Invasion: Wacky Welcome Back

Friday, September 23, 7:00 – 9:30 p.m., The Attic

Calling all 6-12th graders! Friday Night Attic Invasion is a chance for our middle schoolers to have full reign over the Attic, with an emphasis on making friends and having fun. We play crazy games in the gym, watch movies, and enjoy dinner together.

MICAH Remembrance Pilgrimage

Saturday, September 24, 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

To commemorate the anniversary of the 1906 Atlanta Race Massacre, we will visit a quilt exhibit, "Lives Taken, Lives Remembered," that includes original quilts honoring the 36 documented African Americans who were lynched in Fulton County. Following that exhibit, we will drive a short distance to attend the marker dedication remembering Zeb Long, one of the victims murdered during the massacre. To register, or for more information, contact Jan Kibler at janetkibler58@gmail.com.

Blessing of the Animals

Sunday, September 25, 9:00 a.m. in Ellis Hall

Join us for a joyful Eucharist service celebrating the gift of God's creation, as we celebrate the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi. Bring your pets, stuffed animals, and memories as our Primary and Junior Choirs lead us in worship and song.

Feast of St. Francis

Sunday, September 25, 11:15 a.m. in the Church

The All Saints' Parish Choir presents movements from Mozart's "Sparrow" Mass with chamber orchestra as we celebrate the life and ministry of St. Francis, the patron saint of animals.

Join the Eucharistic Ministers!

Are you interested in deepening your spiritual experience during our services? The Eucharistic Ministers Team could be a great fit for you. Our team assists the Celebrant during the Eucharist by helping to serve the consecrated bread and wine. Training can be completed in one session and is usually conducted between the 9:00 and 11:15 services. The time commitment is limited to Sundays and only on a voluntary basis. If you are interested in learning more or have questions, please reach out to Jan Kibler at janetkibler58@gmail.com.

All Saints' Learning Online: A Conversation with Naomi Tutu and Mungi Ngomane

Sunday, September 18 and 25, 10:20 a.m., Zoom

Join our new priest associate, Rev. Naomi Tutu, and her daughter, Mungi Ngomane author of Everyday Ubuntu: Living Better Together, the African Way, as they explore the theme of Ubuntu and faith. Register online via Realm, or by scanning the QR code. The link to join this event will be emailed to all registered participants 15 minutes before it begins.

Education for Ministry (EfM)

Where are you in your faith journey? If your answer is "I'm not sure," then EfM is waiting for you! The Education for Ministry (EfM) program is a four-year program sponsored by the theology school at the University of the South (Sewanee). We cover the Bible and other church documents and then discuss how to use that knowledge to better your daily life. All Saints' has more than 400 EfM graduates, one of the largest in the Episcopal Church! If you are interested in learning more about the program and possibly joining a group, please contact Steve Hines at hines@ajobs.com or at 404-323-0610.

Wednesday Night Supper: Baked Potato Bar & Karaoke

Wednesday, September 21, 5:00-7:00 p.m.

Join us for Wednesday Night Supper on September 21 where we'll enjoy a potato bar and sing karaoke! We especially invite all our young adults to join us in fellowship. To register ahead of time, visit our website or register online via Realm. For more information, contact Jill Gossett, Parish Life Director, at jgossett@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Make New Friends with Foyer Groups

One of the very best ways to get to know fellow parishioners in a big church like All Saints' is through informal, small dinner group gatherings at one another's homes. The groups formed are a great mix—single, married, families with children, various ages and stages. Signups will be at the Parish Life table or you can register online at the All Saints' website. For more information contact Barbara Blender at bblender@bellsouth.net or Sherry Collins at sherry_collins@bellsouth.net.

Covenant Community Annual Celebration of Memories & Hopes

Thursday, September 29, 6:00-9:00 p.m., Ellis Hall

Please join us for a Night Under the Stars as we celebrate the transition of four Covenant Community residents during our annual Celebration of Memories & Hopes. These men have worked hard to heal and recover from addiction and homelessness and to join other Covenant alumni as "Men of Hope." This is a wonderful opportunity to witness firsthand the incredible, transformative power of the residential program. The event is free to attend, but please do register by scanning the QR code or going to the events page on our website.

September Parish Wide Threads FALL Clothing Drive

- Requesting donations of gently used or new Children's clothing for both Boys and Girls, infants through size 18 and small adult clothing in preparation for RE-Opening Threads for in-shop shopping in October. The School Uniform Event was a huge success, with 400 children served with clothing and shoes. However, that left Threads with low inventory, so we need a clothing drive now!
- Donation boxes are located on the first floor of the Pritchett Center and in the first-floor stairwell between Ellis Hall and Egleston Hall.
- Please consider talking to neighbors and family and asking them to donate too! You may also think about involving your children's extracurricular groups, scouts, or sports teams as well.

Share a Meal with the Men of Covenant Community

For the past 25 years since the founding of Covenant Community, All Saints' parishioners have generously provided dinner on Monday nights for its residents. This has always meant so much to the men of this residential drug treatment facility. Bring dinner yourself or with family, with friends or co-workers. What a great way to offer your support! Meals for around 15 people can either be shared with the men inside the residence or they can be dropped off during the day. Available dates are September 19 and 26. To volunteer or for more information, contact Barbara Blender at bblender@bellsouth.net.

Worship Notes

In Our Prayers

In our Anglican Cycle of Prayer, we pray for The Episcopal Anglican Church of Brazil.

In our diocese, we pray for St. David's Church in Roswell.

In our parish, we give thanks for the rich and varied life in ministry which we share in this parish, and we ask that we may listen for the Spirit's prompting in us for how we might be a pastoral minister in this year ahead.

The Worship Committee and staff welcome your feedback; please email
