

All Saints' Episcopal Church

The Sixteenth Sunday After Pentecost

THE HOLY EUCHARIST, RITE II

Sunday, September 25, 2022 ☙ 9:00 a.m.

Welcome Home!

Welcome to worship at All Saints'. If this is your first time with us, we invite you to complete a visitor's card and place it in the offering plate. Our website provides current information and access to our digital content: allsaintsatlanta.org. This bulletin contains all you need to join us in worship, everyone is welcome to receive communion at God's table, and the clergy are happy to speak with you at any time. We are delighted you're here – welcome home!

Prelude | "Penguin's Playtime"

Nigel Ogden (b. 1954)

The people stand as the bell tolls.

Opening Acclamation |

Celebrant	Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People	And blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever. Amen.

You are my refuge and my stronghold, my God in whom
I put my trust.

~ Psalm 91:2

Collect of the Day |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Most high, omnipotent, good Lord, grant your people grace to renounce gladly the vanities of this world; that, following the way of blessed Francis, we may, for love of you, delight in your whole creation with perfectness of joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

The First Lesson | Job 39:1 – 18

‘Do you know when the mountain goats give birth? Do you observe the calving of the deer? Can you number the months that they fulfil, and do you know the time when they give birth, when they crouch to give birth to their offspring, and are delivered of their young? Their young ones become strong, they grow up in the open; they go forth, and do not return to them. ‘Who has let the wild ass go free? Who has loosed the bonds of the swift ass, to which I have given the steppe for its home, the salt land for its dwelling-place? It scorns the tumult of the city; it does not hear the shouts of the driver. It ranges the mountains as its pasture, and it searches after every green thing. ‘Is the wild ox willing to serve you? Will it spend the night at your crib? Can you tie it in the furrow with ropes, or will it harrow the valleys after you? Will you depend on it because its strength is great, and will you hand over your labour to it? Do you have faith in it that it will return, and bring your grain to your threshing-floor? ‘The ostrich’s wings flap wildly, though its pinions lack plumage. For it leaves its eggs to the earth, and lets them be warmed on the ground, forgetting that a foot may crush them, and that a wild animal may trample them. It deals cruelly with its young, as if they were not its own; though its labour should be in vain, yet it has no fear; because God has made it forget wisdom, and given it no share in understanding. When it spreads its plumes aloft, it laughs at the horse and its rider.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn | Psalm 148:7 – 14 Laudate Dominum

The people remain seated and all sing.

1. Let the whole cre - a - tion cry, "Glo - ry to the Lord on high."
2. Men and wo - men, young and old, raise the an - them man - i - fold;
Heaven and earth, a - wake and sing, "God is our e - ter - nal King."
join with chil - dren's songs of praise; wor - ship God through length of days.
Praise God, all ye hosts a - bove, ev - er shin - ing forth in love;
From the north to south - ern pole let the might - y cho - rus roll:
sun and moon, up - lift your voice; night and stars, in God re - joice!
"Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly One, glo - ry be to God a - lone!"

The Second Lesson | An Epistle from the All Saints' Community

A member of our community reads a letter describing the spiritual practice of generosity.

Sequence Hymn |

The people stand and sing.

"I heard the voice of Jesus say"

Kingsfold

1. I heard the voice of Je - sus say, "Come un - to me and rest;
2. I heard the voice of Je - sus say, "Be - hold I free - ly give
3. I heard the voice of Je - sus say, "I am this dark world's light; and in your wea - ri - ness lay down your head up - on my breast"
the liv - ing wa - ter; thirst - y one, stoop down and drink and live."
look un - to me, your morn shall rise, and all your day be bright."
I came to Je - sus as I was, so wea - ry, worn, and sad;
I came to Je - sus, and I drank of that life - giv - ing stream;
I looked to Je - sus, and I found in him my Star, my Sun;
I found in him a rest - ing place and he has made me glad.
my thirst was quenched, my soul re - vived, and now I live in him.
and in that light of life I'll walk till pil - grim days are done.

The Gospel | Matthew 11:25 – 30

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

At that time Jesus said, 'I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. 'Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.'

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon | The Rev. Dr. Andrew K. Barnett

The people are seated at the preacher's invitation.

A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

The Nicene Creed |

The people stand.

Celebrant Let us affirm our faith using the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit

he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified

under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism
for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People |

The people stand or kneel for the prayers.

Intercessor Loving God, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
People That we all may be one.

Intercessor Grant that every member of your Church may truly and humbly serve you.
People That your name may be glorified by all people.

Intercessor In the Anglican Communion, we pray for The Anglican Church of Burundi. In our Diocese we pray for the people and clergy of St. Dunstan's Church in Atlanta. And in our parish, we give thanks for our Guild of the Christ Child and ask God's blessing on those who welcome and support families with infant children as they find their place in our midst. We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
People That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and sacraments.

Intercessor We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world.
People That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Intercessor (Thanksgivings will be read aloud). Are there other thanksgivings? Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
People That our works may find favor in your sight.

Intercessor I ask your prayers for those who are sick (The names of the sick will be read aloud). Are there others in need of prayer? Lord, have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
People That they may be delivered from their distress.

Intercessor I ask your prayers for those who have died (The names of those who have died will be read aloud). Are there others who have died? Lord, give to the departed eternal rest;
People Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Intercessor We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
People May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Concluding Collect |

Celebrant Lord, hear the prayers of your people: and what we have asked faithfully, grant that we obtain effectually, to the glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
People Amen.

Confession and Absolution |

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

The people stand or kneel for the confession.

Celebrant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Peace |

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The people exchange a sign of God's peace and are seated.

Announcements |

Your financial support helps us participate in God's work in the world. If you would like to contribute to the Sunday offering, we invite you to place your donation in the offering plate, or scan the code to the right with your phone to give electronically.

The Holy Communion

Offertory Anthem |

Sung by the choir.

Sebastian Temple (1928-1997)
arr. Martin Neary (b. 1940)

“Make me a channel of your peace”

Prayer of St. Francis

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me bring your love.
Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord,
and where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Refrain

*O Master, grant that I may never seek so much to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand,
to be loved, as to love with all my soul.*

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope.
Where there is darkness, only light,
and where there's sadness, ever joy.

Refrain

Make me a channel of your peace:
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
in giving of ourselves that we receive,
and in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Refrain

Words attributed to St. Francis of Assisi (c. 1181–1226)

Presentation Hymn | 397

The people stand.

“All praise and thanks to God”

the Son, and him who reigns with them in high - est hea - ven, e - ter - nal, Tri - une God, whom earth and heaven a - dore;
for thus it was, is now, and shall be, ev - er - more.

Eucharistic Prayer A |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

The Celebrant offers a proper preface for the day.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus | S 125

Setting: A Community Mass, Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry.
Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Ho - san - na in the high - est, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues.

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and maker and of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, Almighty God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Savior. By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

and the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Whoever you are, wherever you are on your journey, you are welcome at this table.

The people are seated.

Healing prayers are offering in the chapel during communion.

Fraction Anthem |

Setting: A Community Mass, R. Proulx

organ

Lamb of God, you take a-way the sins of the world, have mer-cy on us.

Lamb of God, you take a-way the sins of the world, have mer - cy on us.

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Communion Anthem |

Bruce Neswick (b. 1956)

"In the cross of Christ I glory" Tomter

- 1 In the cross of Christ I glory,
towering o'er the wrecks of time;
all the light of sacred story
gathers round its head sublime.
- 2 When the woes of life o'ertake me,
hopes deceive, and fears annoy,
never shall the cross forsake me:
lo, it glows with peace and joy.
- 3 When the sun of bliss is beaming light and love upon my way,

- from the cross the radiance streaming adds new luster to the day.
- 4 Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
by the cross are sanctified;
peace is there that knows no measure, joys that through all time abide.
- 5 In the cross of Christ I glory,
towering o'er the wrecks of time;
all the light of sacred story
gathers round its head sublime.

Words: John Bowring (1792–1872)

Post Communion Prayer |

The people stand.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and people

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessing |

Celebrant

God the Holy Trinity make you strong in faith and love, defend you on every side, and guide you in truth and peace; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit be upon you this day and forever more. Amen.

A: Offer a commitment that is meaningful to YOU. For many of us, our pledge is a way to establish the importance that our church community has in our lives. For others it is a realization that to run a vibrant parish like All Saints' requires that we all make a significant contribution.

Q: I give money when the offering plate is passed during worship. Is it really important that I make a pledge for 2023?

A: Pledge commitments are the only way our finance committee can design a budget and plan for 2023.
Collectively our pledges add up to what we are able to do each year. Every pledge matters!

Q: What is the easiest way to make a pledge?

A: Scan this QR code. If you don't have a secure Realm account, open one and then make your pledge. It's as easy as that!

There are many ways to make your pledge:

1. Online at allsaintsatlanta.org/give
2. Mail a check to All Saints' Church, 634 W. Peachtree St., Atlanta, GA 30308
3. Put a check or cash into the offering plate during the services
4. Text to Give: text AllSaintsAtlanta to 73256
5. Gift stocks or securities

This Week

6th Annual Covenant Community Golf Classic

Monday, September 26, Stone Mountain Golf & Country Club

Welcome to the 6th Annual Covenant Community Golf Classic in Memory of Bryan Scott Mink! The day will feature 18 holes of golf in a scramble format, mini-competitions throughout the tournament, a raffle, silent auction, and more. A dinner and special awards ceremony will conclude the day. All proceeds from this event will benefit Covenant Community, Inc. Learn more by scanning the QR code.

Covenant Community Annual Celebration of Memories & Hopes

Thursday, September 29, 6:00-9:00 p.m., Ellis Hall

Please join us for a Night Under the Stars as we celebrate the transition of four Covenant Community residents during our annual Celebration of Memories & Hopes. These men have worked hard to heal and recover from addiction and homelessness and to join other Covenant alumni as "Men of Hope." This is a wonderful opportunity to witness firsthand the incredible, transformative power of the residential program. The event is free to attend, but please do register by scanning the QR code or going to the events page on our website.

Worship & Music

32nd Annual Pride Eucharist

Thursday, October 6, 7:30 p.m., in the Church

Integrity Atlanta and the Commission on LGBTQ+ Ministry of the Episcopal Diocese of Atlanta will sponsor the 32nd Annual Pride Eucharist. The service will be held at All Saints' and The Rt. Rev. Robert C. Wright, Bishop of Atlanta, will preach and preside at the Eucharist. The service is open to all, and all are welcome. Sign language interpretation will be provided.

Formation

America the Beautiful: Sustainability & All Saints'

Sunday, October 2, 10:20 a.m., Ellis Hall

Engage in conversation with a panel of All Saints' parishioners, each of whom shares a passion and expertise in building a more sustainable Georgia. The panel will imagine the possibilities for us as a greener church in the years to come.

All Saints' Learning Online: Seeking Shalom

Sundays, October 2, 9, 15, & 30, 10:20 a.m., Zoom

The Hebrew word, shalom, encapsulates God's dream for the world. Shalom describes a vision of creation redeemed and restored not just through individual faith but through the cultivation of flourishing communities, just societies, and the healing of our social fabric. Join Emory professor, Dr. Ryan Bonfiglio, for this four-part course that examines the Biblical concept of shalom and how it can transform the way we think about discipleship and the mission of the church today. Scan the QR code to register.

Deep River, My Home is Over Jordan: Howard Thurman Contemplative Zoom Series

Wednesdays, October 5, 12, 19, & 26, 7:00-8:00 p.m.,
Zoom

You are invited to a contemplative Zoom series on Wednesdays in October, facilitated by All Saints' seminarian Rodell Jefferson and parishioner and Candler graduate Caroline Enloe. Based on the recordings of lectures by the famed Black theological Howard Thurman, topics will include boundaries of the self and breaking down the ego, right action, and emphasis on the movement and flow of life that leaves a mark on each of us.

Education for Ministry (EfM)

Where are you in your faith journey? If your answer is "I'm not sure," then EfM is waiting for you! The Education for Ministry (EfM) program is a four-year program sponsored by the theology school at the University of the South (Sewanee). We cover the Bible and other church documents and then discuss how to use that knowledge to better your daily life. All Saints' has more than 400 EfM graduates, one of the largest in the Episcopal Church! If you are interested in learning more about the program and possibly joining a group, please contact Steve Hines at hines@ajobs.com or at 404-323-0610.

Parish Life

Wednesday Night Supper: Pizza & Newcomer Night

Wednesday, September 28, 5:00-7:00 p.m.

It's pizza and newcomer night! Join us for a parish-wide dinner and some great conversation. For more information, contact Jill Gossett, Parish Life Director, at jgossett@allsaintsatlanta.org. Register online via Realm or by scanning the QR code.

Make New Friends with Foyer Groups

One of the very best ways to get to know fellow parishioners in a big church like All Saints' is through informal, small dinner group gatherings at one another's homes. The groups formed are a great mix—single, married, families with children, various ages and stages. Signups will be at the Parish Life table or you can register online at the All Saints' website. For more information contact Barbara Blender at bblender@bellsouth.net or Sherry Collins at sherry_collins@bellsouth.net.

Service

September Parish Wide Threads FALL Clothing Drive

- Requesting donations of gently used or new Children's clothing for both Boys and Girls, infants through size 18 and small adult clothing in preparation for RE-Opening Threads for in-shop shopping in October. The School Uniform Event was a huge success, with 400 children served with clothing and shoes. However, that left Threads with low inventory, so we need a clothing drive now!
- Donation boxes are located on the first floor of the Pritchett Center and in the first-floor stairwell between Ellis Hall and Egleston Hall.
- Please consider talking to neighbors and family and asking them to donate too! You may also think about involving your children's extracurricular groups, scouts, or sports teams as well.

Share a Meal with the Men of Covenant Community

For the past 25 years since the founding of Covenant Community, All Saints' parishioners have generously provided dinner on Monday nights for its residents. This has always meant so much to the men of this residential drug treatment facility. Bring dinner yourself or with family, with friends or co-workers. What a great way to offer your support! Meals for around 15 people can either be shared with the men inside the residence or they can be dropped off during the day. To volunteer or for more information, contact Barbara Blender at bblender@bellsouth.net.
