The First Lesson | Daniel 7:1 – 3, 15 – 18

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another. As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: "As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom for ever—for ever and ever."

Reader	The Word of the Lord.
People	Thanks be to God.

Psalm | 149 Cantate Domino

Sung by the choir.

Anglican chant: C. V. Stanford (1852–1924)

- 1 Hallelujah!
Sing to the Lord a new song; *
sing his praise in the congregation of the faithful.
- 2 Let Israel rejoice in his Maker; *
let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
- 3 Let them praise his Name in the dance; *
let them sing praise to him with timbrel and harp.
- 4 For the Lord takes pleasure in his people * and adorns the poor with victory.
- 5 Let the faithful rejoice in triumph; *
let them be joyful on their beds.
- 6 Let the praises of God be in their throat * and a two-edged sword in their hand;
- 7 To wreak vengeance on the nations * and punishment on the peoples;
- 8 To bind their kings in chains * and their nobles with links of iron;
- 9 To inflict on them the judgment decreed; *
this is glory for all his faithful people.
Hallelujah!

The Second Lesson | Ephesians 1:11 – 23

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory. I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Reader The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The Gospel | Luke 6:20 – 31

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus looked up at his disciples and said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. "Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. "Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. "Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets." "But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. "Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. "Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep. "Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets. "But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon | The Rev. Dr. Simon J. Mainwaring

The people are seated at the preacher's invitation.

A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

The Nicene Creed |

The people stand.

Officiant Let us affirm our faith using the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit

he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified

under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

- Rector* We pray for all who have been buried from this church in the past year.

Concluding Collect |

Rector

Almighty God, by your Holy Spirit you have made us one with your saints in heaven and on earth: Grant that in our earthly pilgrimage we may always be supported by this fellowship of love and prayer, and know ourselves to be surrounded by their witness to your power and mercy. We ask this for the sake of Jesus Christ, in whom all our intercessions are acceptable through the Spirit, and who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

Give us the wings of faith to rise within the veil,
and see the saints above,
how great their joys,
how bright their glories be.

We ask them whence their victory came:
they, with united breath,
ascribe their conquest to the Lamb, their triumph to his death.

They marked the footsteps that he trod, his zeal inspired their breast,
and, following their incarnate God, possess the promised rest.

Words: Isaac Watts (1674-1748)

Confession and Absolution |

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Offertory Anthem |

"Blessed are they"

Tarik O'Regan (b. 1978)

Blessed are they whose labours only cease
When God decrees the quiet, sweet release;
Who lie down calmly in the sleep of peace.

Blessed are they!

[Excerpted from All Saints' Day (1867) by Ada Cambridge (1844–1926)]

I have come to the borders of sleep,
The unfathomable deep Forest where all must lose
Their way, however straight
Or winding, soon or late;
They cannot choose.

[Excerpted from Lights Out (1916) by Edward Thomas (1878–1917)]

[Blessed are they!]

Whose dust is angel-guarded, where the flowers
And soft moss cover it, in this earth of ours;
Whose souls are roaming in celestial bowers.

Blessed are they!

[All Saints' Day, A. Cambridge]

"Blessed are they" was commissioned by parishioner Frank Thomas in honor of the ministry of Ray and Beth Chenault, Organists & Choirmasters Emeriti. The work was first performed by the All Saints' Parish Choir on All Saints' Sunday 2013.

Eucharistic Prayer D |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is truly right to glorify you, Almighty God, and to give you thanks; for you alone are God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and forever.

Fountain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance.

Countless throngs of angels stand before you to serve you night and day; and, beholding the glory of your presence, they offer you unceasing praise. Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim you, and glorify your Name, as we sing:

Sanctus | S 128

Setting: W. Mathias

organ

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,
God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry.
organ Ho-san-na in the high-est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, Ho-san-na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues.

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

O God, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them he took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Now, we celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

Celebrant and People

We praise you, we bless you,
we give thanks to you,
and we pray to you, Lord our God.

The Celebrant continues

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ. Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace.

And grant that we may find our inheritance with all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant

The people are seated.

Taizé/Jacques Berthier

"Eat this bread; drink this cup; come to me and nev - er be hun - gry.

Eat this bread; drink this cup; trust in me and you will not thirst."

Post Communion Prayer |

And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen

"I sing a song of the saints of God"

Grand Isle

1. I sing a song of the saints of God, pa-tient and brave and true,
 2. They loved their Lord so dear, so dear, and his love made them strong;
 3. They lived not on-ly in a-ges past, there are hund-reds of thou-sands still, who toiled and fought and lived and died for the Lord they loved and knew.
 and they fol-lowed the right, for Je-sus' sake, the whole of their good lives long.
 the world is bright with the joy-ous saints who love to do Je-sus' will.
 And one was a doc-tor and one was a queen,
 And one was a sold-ier, and one was a priest,
 You can meet them in school, or in lanes, or at sea, and one was a shep-herd-ess on the green: they were and one was slain by a fierce wild beast: and there's in church, or in trains, or in shops, or at tea, for the all of them saints of God, and I mean, God help-ing, to be one too.
 not an-y rea-son no, not the least, why I should-n't be one too.
 saints of God are just folk like me, and I mean to be one too.

Today

Feast of All Saints'

Join us to celebrate All Saints' Day, our patronal feast, with festive music featuring the All Saints' Parish Choir, brass quintet, and timpani. The choir will reprise the anthem "Blessed are they" by Tarik O'Regan, commissioned by parishioner Frank Thomas and premiered on All Saints Sunday 2013.

A Taste for All Saints' | 10:20-11:30 a.m. | Ellis Hall

Celebrate the Feast of All Saints' while enjoying food from local eateries and lifting up our 2023 youth pilgrims. We'll have food stations from neighboring restaurants and caterers, such as Mary Mac's Tea Room, Naan Stop, MetroFresh, Refuge Coffee, and more! We are requesting a $10 donation per adult and $5 donation for children under 10. Donations will be taken at the door and will be used to support our youth going on pilgrimage in 2023.

St. Helena's Pepper Jelly | Ellis Hall Foyer

St. Helena's Hellfire Pepper Jelly is back! Jars will be sold each Sunday between services from November 6 until it sells out. The proceeds will go towards Covenant Community, tuition for a female seminarian in Tanganyika, and support for local organizations like Literacy Action and Global Village.

Sunday Morning Breakfast | 8:00-9:00 a.m. | Ellis Hall

Come have a Southern-style breakfast with us before going to worship, complete with bacon, eggs, biscuits, and gravy! Breakfast will be served from 8:00-9:00 a.m. in Ellis Hall and the cost is $5 per person. No registration needed.

Jesus on the Front Page | 10:20-11:05 a.m. | P305/306

Join this ongoing discussion of the news of the day and how we are called as Christians to respond in the public arena, in our private lives, and in our prayers.

Sunday Night Live: All Souls Candle Service

6:00-7:30 p.m. | The Attic

All 6-12th graders are welcome to join us for Sunday Night Live – our weekly youth group where we share dinner, play games, and build community with one another while growing in our faith.

Threads 2022 "Coats on a Clothesline" Coat Drive

Sundays through November 20

Parishioners are invited to choose a family or an individual child from the Threads Clothesline, which will be in the Ellis Hall foyer. Return the gifted coat, with a new hat and gloves, and the child's name clearly written on the wrapped gift, by Sunday, December 4. The children and families who will receive coats from the Clothesline Project have been specially chosen by our partnering agencies, the residents of Covenant Community, All Saints' Refugee Ministries, and Midtown Assistance Center. You are also welcome to simply donate one or many coats for the many children that Threads serves each week.

Giving

All Saints' was founded in 1903. As parishioner Malinda Snow reminds us "There was nothing on this corner except woods. Without the prayers, the work, and the financial support of our founders, there would be no All Saints'. Today there might be a fried chicken place, or a car dealership on the corner of West Peachtree and North Avenue. What if that were the case? How would your life be different? How would Atlanta be different?" Make your pledge today to this vibrant church. Continue the work of our founders with strength and courage. Thank you.

Charlie and Anne Henn, 2023 Annual Canvass Chairs

There are many ways to make your pledge:

1. Online at allsaintsatlanta.org/give
2. Mail a check to All Saints' Church, 634 W. Peachtree St., Atlanta, GA 30308
3. Put a check or cash into the offering plate during the services
4. Text to Give: text AllSaintsAtlanta to 73256
5. Gift stocks or securities

For questions, contact Ellen Hayes, Director of Development, at ehayes@allsaintsatlanta.org
