Collect for Purity | Emmet Waide

Leader

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit; that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Welcome | Kathy Roberts, Director of Children's Ministry

Collect of the Day | Luke Frilingos

Leader The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Leader Let us pray.

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

The First Lesson | Jeremiah 17:7 – 8 Common English Bible Translation

Happy are those who trust in the Lord, who rely on the Lord. They will be like trees planted by the streams, whose roots reach down to the water. They won't fear drought when it comes; their leaves will remain green. They won't be stressed in the time of drought or fail to bear fruit.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm | 23 Dominus regit me

The people remain seated. The cantor and choir introduce the antiphon and the people repeat.

Antiphon

The Lord is my shepherd; God loves me I know.

The Lord watches over me, wherever I go.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

He makes me lie down in green pastures: he leads me beside still waters.

He restores my soul; he leads me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Antiphon (sung)

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for you are with me; your rod and your staff they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.

You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Antiphon (sung)

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Antiphon (sung)

Readers: Davis Gifford, Millie Constant, Brendan Sullivan, Sebastian Furr-Jimenez, Frances Shepherd

The Second Lesson | Colossians 2:6 – 7 Common English Bible Translation

So live in Christ Jesus the Lord in the same way as you received him. Be rooted and built up in him, be established in faith, and overflow with thanksgiving just as you were taught.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation |

The people stand and sing.

“Love Canon”

Sung Twice

Love, love, love, love, Chris - tians this is your call:

Love your neigh - bor as your - self for God loves us all.

The Gospel | John 15:1 – 17 Common English Bible Translation

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, “I am the true vine, and my Father is the vineyard keeper. He removes any of my branches that don’t produce fruit, and he trims any branch that produces fruit so that it will produce even more fruit. You are already trimmed because of the word I have spoken to you. Remain in me, and I will remain in you. A branch can’t produce fruit by itself, but must remain in the vine. Likewise, you can’t produce fruit unless you remain in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, then you will produce much fruit. Without me, you can’t do anything. If you don’t remain in me, you will be like a branch that is thrown out and dries up. Those branches are gathered up, thrown into a fire, and burned. If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask for whatever you want and it will be done for you. My Father is glorified when you produce much fruit and in this way prove that you are my disciples. “As the Father loved me, I too have loved you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I kept my Father’s commandments and remain in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy will be in you and your joy will be complete. This is my commandment: love each other just as I have loved you. No one has greater love than to give up one’s life for one’s friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I don’t call you servants any longer, because servants don’t know what their master is doing. Instead, I call you friends, because everything I heard from my Father I have made known to you. You didn’t choose me, but I chose you and appointed you so that you could go and produce fruit and so that your fruit could last. As a result, whatever you ask the Father in my name, he will give you. I give you these commandments so that you can love each other.

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Prayer for Veterans |

Rector

Almighty God, today we remember all of our veterans past and present. We ask for the healing of those who have been wounded in body and soul, wounds both visible and invisible. We pray for those who have returned and those who are returning from places of conflict and live with injured bodies and traumatized spirits to receive your solace and healing. We ask that those who are unable to pray for themselves will receive the blessings of our prayers offered on their behalf. Bring peace to those places where our women and men have fought. Bless those who served in non-combatant roles. May their service continue in their lives and may that service be positive for all of us. Give us the vision to see a world in which all grow weary with war and fighting, and turn their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. These things we ask in the name of the Prince of Peace. Amen.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Offertory Anthem |

“The Tree Song”

Ken Medema (b. 1943)

arr. Robert Sterling (b. 1955)

I saw a tree by the riverside one day as I walked along,
Straight as an arrow and pointing to the sky, growing tall and strong.

“How do you grow so tall and strong?” I said to the riverside tree.

This is the song that my tree friend sang to me:

I’ve got roots growing down to the water, I’ve got leaves growing up to the sunshine, and the fruit that I bear is a sign of the life in me.

I am shade from the hot summer sundown, I am nest for the birds of the heaven.

I’m becoming what the Lord of Trees has meant me to be: A strong young tree.

I saw a tree in the city streets where buildings blocked the sun,

Green and lovely, I could see it gave joy to ev’ryone.

“How do you grow in the city streets?” I said to the downtown tree.

This is the song that my tree friend sang to me: Refrain.

Eucharistic Prayer G | Enriching Our Worship

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant

Blessed are you, Lord God, our light and our salvation; to you be glory and praise for ever. From the beginning you have created all things and all your works echo the music of your praise. In the fullness of time you made us in your image, the crown of all creation. You give us breath and speech, that with angels and archangels and all the powers of heaven we may find a voice to sing your praise:

Sanctus |

Setting: David Dubay

Introduction

Ho - ly, ho - ly, Ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might

Hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry, Lord, we sing your praise.

Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Ho - san - na in the high - est. Lord, we sing your praise.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might.

Bless - ed is He who comes in the name of the Lord,

Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Ho - san - na in the high - est. Lord, we sing your praise.

Lord, we sing your praise. Lord, we sing your praise.

The Celebrant continues.

How wonderful the work of your hands, O Lord. As a mother tenderly gathers her children, you embraced a people as your own. When they turned away and rebelled your love remained steadfast. From them you raised up Jesus our Savior, born of Mary, to be the living bread, in whom all our hungers are satisfied. He offered his life for sinners, and with a love stronger than death he opened wide his arms on the cross.

On the night before he died, he came to supper with his friends and, taking bread, he gave you thanks. He broke it and gave it to them, saying: Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me.

At the end of supper, taking the cup of wine, he gave you thanks, and said: Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ:

Celebrant and People

Dying you destroyed our death,
rising you restored our life:
Lord Jesus, come in glory.

The Celebrant continues

Loving God, we plead with confidence his sacrifice made once for all upon the cross; we remember his dying and rising in glory, and we rejoice that he intercedes for us at your right hand.

Pour out your Holy Spirit as we bring before you these gifts of your creation; may they be for us the body and blood of your dear Son. As we eat and drink these holy gifts in your presence, form us in the likeness of Christ, and build us into a living temple to your glory.

Bring us at the last with all the saints to the vision of that eternal splendor for which you have created us; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, by whom, with whom, and in whom, with all who stand before you in earth and heaven, we worship you, O God, in songs of everlasting praise:

Celebrant and People

Blessing and honor and glory and power be yours forever and ever. AMEN.

Let us join these words in the prayer that Jesus taught us:

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Today

Children's Service | 9:00 a.m., in the Church

This Sunday, the children will serve and lead us as they continue to claim this faith community as their own. They will share their wisdom, awe, and wonder with us. The 4th and 5th graders have written the prayers of the people, the Children's Choirs have prepared songs to accompany the Gospel message, and you will receive a special symbol to take with you to remind you to be their strong roots of faith here at All Saints'. This is their service to you and their church. This is each child being fully accepted as active members of this church community. This is their witness to you of their growing faith. Join us and grow with us!

Veteran's Sunday

We honor and celebrate our veterans this Sunday with a prayer and anthem at both services, and we invite all active and retired military service members to wear their uniforms on Sunday. Our 11:15 a.m. service will be led musically by The Georgia Boy Choir under the direction of David R. White. They will offer anthems by Stanford, Dyson, and Rutter. As we remember and pray for our veterans, the boys will also offer Nick Glennie-Smith's "Mansions of the Lord." Originally written for the film We Were Soldiers, this hymn was sung as the closing processional at the 2004 funeral of President Reagan.

Foundations of our Faith: Saints and Service Sunday

Donations of any amount will be accepted between services on November 13, 20 and 27. You may also donate online by December 1. For more information, contact Alvin Moore at alvin-moore@comcast.net.
