

All Saints' Episcopal Church

4 Advent

THE HOLY EUCHARIST, RITE II

Sunday, December 19, 2021 + 9:00 a.m.

Welcome Home!

Welcome to worship at All Saints'. If this is your first time with us, we invite you to complete a visitor's card and place it in the offering plate. Our website provides current information and access to our digital content: allsaintsatlanta.org. This bulletin contains all you need to join us in worship, everyone is welcome to receive communion at God's table, and the clergy are happy to speak with you at any time. We are delighted you're here – welcome home!

Prelude | Carol Medley

Dania Lane, harp

arr. Dania Lane

The people stand as the bell tolls.

Opening Acclamation |

Celebrant	Jesus Christ is the light of the world:
People	A light no darkness can overpower. Amen.

“On Jordan’s bank the Baptist’s cry
announces that the Lord is nigh.”

—“On Jordan’s bank the Baptist’s cry”, Winchester New

“O Come, O come, Emmanuel”

Veni, veni Emmanuel

O come, O come, Emmanuel, and ransom captive Israel,
That mourns in lonely exile here until the Son of God appear.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel!

O come, O come, thou Lord of might, who to thy tribes on Sinai's height
In ancient times didst give the law, in cloud, and majesty, and awe.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel!

O come, thou Key of David, come, and open wide our heavenly home;
Make safe the way that leads on high, and close the path to misery.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel!

Collect of the Day |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Purify our conscience, Almighty God, by your daily visitation, that your Son Jesus Christ, at his coming, may find in us a mansion prepared for himself; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Christmas Story told by the Children of All Saints'

The people are seated.

Instrumental Prelude |

John the Baptist | Prepare the Way

As it is written by the prophet Isaiah,... Hear the voice of one crying in the wilderness:
Prepare the Way of the Lord, make his paths straight. Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill should be made low, the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain; all flesh shall see the salvation of God.
Prepare the way!

Congregational Hymn | 76

“On Jordan's bank the Baptist's cry”

Winchester New

On Jordan's bank the Baptist's cry announces that the Lord is nigh:
awake and hearken, for he brings glad tidings of the King of kings.
Then cleansed be every breast from sin; make straight the way for God within,
and let each heart prepare a home where such a mighty guest may come.

Narration | Luke 2:1–5

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child.

Congregational Hymn | 79

“O little town of Bethlehem”

St. Louis

Joseph and Mary come forward.

O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep the silent stars go by;
Yet in thy dark streets shineth the everlasting Light;
The hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight!

Narration | Luke 2:6–7

While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

Congregational Hymn | 115

“What child is this”

Greensleeves

Baby Jesus and midwife come forward.

What child is this, who laid to rest, on Mary's lap is sleeping?
Whom angels greet with anthems sweet,
While shepherds watch are keeping?
This, this is Christ the King, whom shepherds guard and angels sing;
Haste, haste to bring him laud, the babe, the son of Mary.

Narration | Luke 2:8–14

The Angel of the Lord and the shepherds come forward during narration.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for see – I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.” And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!”

Congregational Hymn | 96

"Angels we have heard on high"
All the angels come forward.

Gloria

Angels we have heard on high, singing sweetly through the night,
And the mountains in reply, echoing their brave delight.
Gloria in excelsis Deo. Gloria in excelsis Deo.

Come to Bethlehem and see him whose birth the angels sing;
come, adore on bended knee Christ, the Lord, the new born King.
Gloria in excelsis Deo. Gloria in excelsis Deo.

Narration | Luke 2:15–16

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger.

Congregational Hymn | 99

"Go tell it on the mountain"
All the shepherds and sheep come forward.

Go Tell It on the Mountain

Refrain:

*Go tell it on the mountain, over the hills and ev'rywhere;
Go tell it on the mountain, that Jesus Christ is born.*

While shepherds kept their watching o'er silent flocks by night,
Behold throughout the heavens there shone a holy light.

Refrain

Narration | Revelation 5:13

Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing, "To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!"

Congregational Hymn | 115

"What child is this"
All of the remaining animals come forward.

Greensleeves

Why lies he in such mean estate where ox and ass are feeding?
Good Christian, fear; for sinners here the silent Word is pleading.
This, this is Christ the King, whom shepherds guard and angels sing.
Haste, haste to bring him laud, the babe, the son of Mary.

Narration | Matthew 2:1–2, 9–11

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, “Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage.”

When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Congregational Hymn | 128

“We three kings”

Three Kings of Orient

All the wise people come forward.

We three kings of Orient are, bearing gifts we traverse afar, field and fountain, moor and mountain, following yonder star.

O, star of wonder, star of night, star with royal beauty bright;
westward leading, still proceeding, guide us to thy perfect light.

Narration | Luke 2:19–20

But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

Peace | John the Baptist The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The people exchange a sign of God’s peace, children return to their parents. and all are seated.

Announcements |

Your financial support helps us participate in God’s work in the world. If you would like to contribute to the Sunday offering, we invite you to place your donation in the offering plate, or scan the code to the right with your phone to give electronically.

Blessing of the Poinsettias |

Almighty God, you fill all things with your word and your life. You commanded the Earth to bring forth its beauty in due season, and you gave it to the care of humankind for our joy and sustenance. Bless these poinsettias to be sent out as signs of your love and care for those who cannot be here with us. Fill the hearts of those who offer them and those who will receive them with love for you and for one another, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Holy Communion

Offertory Anthem |

“Christ was born on Christmas Day”

Patrick Messick (1956–2021)

Christ was born on Christmas Day in a manger filled with hay;
sheep and cows around him lay. Christ was born on Christmas Day.
Shepherds heard the song that night as angels all around him bright told him on a wondrous sight. Shepherds heard the song that night.
Wisemen came with gifts to bring and bow down to the baby King, guided by a star they'd seen. Wisemen came with gifts to bring:

Noel! Sing we, noel!

All Saints' Cherub, Primary, and Junior Choirs

Presentation Hymn |

The people stand.

“So bring him incense, gold, and myrrh”

Greensleeves

So bring him in - cense, gold, and myrrh, come, peas - ant, king, to own him;
the King of kings sal - va - tion brings, let lov - ing hearts en - throne him.

Refrain
This, this is Christ the King, whom shep - herds guard and an - gels sing;
haste, haste to bring him laud, the babe, the son of Ma - ry.

Celebrant God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

People By your will they were created and have their being.

Celebrant From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

People Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Celebrant Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

People By his blood, he reconciled us.
By his wounds, we are healed.

Celebrant And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry, Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
 Ho - san - na in the high - est, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues

And so, we who have been redeemed by Christ, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

Celebrant and People

We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Celebrant

Lord God of our forebears: God of Abraham and Sarah, Isaac and Rebecca, Jacob, Rachel, and Leah; God of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us.

Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Celebrant and People

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Celebrant

Accept these prayers and praises, O God, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Whoever you are, wherever you are on your journey, you are welcome at God's table.

The people are seated.

Fraction Anthem |

Setting: Land of Rest

O Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world; have mer - cy on us; Lamb of God, and grant us your peace.

Communion Hymn |

“Away in a manger”

Mueller

1. A way in a manger, no crib for his bed,
2. The cat-tle are low-ing, the ba-by a-wakes,
3. Be near me, Lord Je-sus; I ask thee to stay the lit-tle Lord Je-sus laid down his sweet head.
but lit-tle Lord Je-sus no cry-ing he makes.
close by me for e-ver, and love me I pray.
The stars in the bright sky looked down where he lay,
I love thee, Lord Je-sus! Look down from the sky,
Bless all the dear chil-dren in thy ten-der care,
the lit-tle Lord Je-sus a-sleep on the hay.
and stay by my side un-til morn-ing is nigh.
and fit us for hea-ven to live with thee there.

Communion Music |

Prelude in C Major

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685–1750)

“Lo, How a Rose E’er Blooming”

German carol

“In the Bleak Midwinter”

Gustav Holst (1874–1934)

“Infant Holy, Infant Lowly”

Polish carol

Dania Lane, harp

Post Communion Prayer |

The people stand.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Blessing | Celebrant

Christ the Son of Righteousness shine upon you, scatter the darkness from before your path, and make you ready to meet him when he comes in glory; and the blessing of God almighty, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit be upon you this day and forevermore. Amen.

Closing Hymn | 65

“Prepare the way, O Zion”

Bereden väg för Herran

Prepare the way, O Zion, your Christ is drawing near!
Let every hill and valley a level way appear.
Greet One who comes in glory, foretold in sacred story.
Oh, blest is Christ that came in God's most holy name.
He brings God's rule, O Zion; he comes from heaven above.
His rule is peace and freedom, and justice, truth, and love.
Lift high your praise resounding, for grace and joy abounding.
Oh, blest is Christ that came in God's most holy name.
Fling wide your gates, O Zion; your savior's rule embrace.
His tidings of salvation proclaim in every place.
All lands will bow before him, their voices will adore him.
Oh, blest is Christ that came in God's most holy name.

Dismissal | Celebrant We wait for a new Heaven and a new Earth.
 People Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

Voluntary | “O come, O come, Emmanuel”
