Welcome and Announcements |

Opening Sentences |

Officiant The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light.
 People The true light that enlightens everyone is coming into the world.
 Officiant The Word became flesh and dwelt among us,
 People Full of grace and truth, and we beheld his glory.

Confession and Absolution |

Officiant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.
 Officiant and People
 Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.
 Officiant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Invitatory and Psalm |

Reader Lord, open our lips.

People And our mouth shall proclaim your praise. Glory to the holy and undivided Trinity, one God: as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

Psalm | 147:1–12, 21c

Reader Alleluia! How good it is to sing praises to you, O God;

People how pleasant it is to honor you with praise!

Reader For you rebuild Jerusalem

People and gather the exiles of Israel.

Reader You heal the brokenhearted

People and bind up their wounds.

Reader You count the number of the stars

People and call them all by their names.

Reader Great are you and mighty in power;

People there is no limit to your wisdom.

Reader You lift up the lowly,

People but cast the wicked to the ground.

Reader We sing to you, Most High, with thanksgiving;

People we make music to you upon the harp,

Reader For you cover the heavens with clouds

People and prepare rain for the earth;

Reader You make grass to grow upon the mountains

People and green plants to serve humankind.

Reader You provide food for flocks and herds

People and for the young ravens when they cry.

Reader You are not impressed by the might of a horse;

People you have no pleasure in human strength;

Reader But you have pleasure in those who fear you,

People in those who await your gracious favor. Alleluia!

Reader and People

Glory to the holy and undivided Trinity, one God: as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

Have you not known? Have you not heard?
 Has it not been told you from the beginning?
 Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?
 It is he who sits above the circle of the earth,
 and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers;
 who stretches out the heavens like a curtain,
 and spreads them like a tent to live in;
 who brings princes to naught,
 and makes the rulers of the earth as nothing.
 Scarcely are they planted, scarcely sown, scarcely has their stem taken root
 in the earth,
 when he blows upon them, and they wither,
 and the tempest carries them off like stubble.
 To whom then will you compare me,
 or who is my equal? says the Holy One.
 Lift up your eyes on high and see:
 Who created these?
 He who brings out their host
 and numbers them,
 calling them all by name;
Reader The word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

because he is great in strength,
 mighty in power,
 not one is missing.
 Why do you say, O Jacob,
 and speak, O Israel,
 “My way is hidden from the Lord,
 and my right is disregarded by my God”?
 Have you not known? Have you not heard?
 The Lord is the everlasting God,
 the Creator of the ends of the earth.
 He does not faint or grow weary;
 his understanding is unsearchable.
 He gives power to the faint,
 and strengthens the powerless.
 Even youths will faint and be weary,
 and the young will fall exhausted;
 but those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength,
 they shall mount up with wings like eagles,
 they shall run and not be weary,
 they shall walk and not faint.

If I proclaim the gospel, this gives me no ground for boasting, for an obligation is laid on me, and woe to me if I do not proclaim the gospel! For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward; but if not of my own will, I am entrusted with a commission. What then is my reward? Just this: that in my proclamation I may make the gospel free of charge, so as not to make full use of my rights in the gospel.
 For though I am free with respect to all, I have made myself a slave to all, so that I might win more of them. To the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to win Jews. To those under the law I became as one under the law (though I myself am not under the law) so that I might win those under the law. To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (though I am not free from God’s law but am under Christ’s law) so that I might win those outside the law. To the weak I became weak, so that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all people, that I might by all means save some. I do it all for the sake of the gospel, so that I may share in its blessings.

Reader The word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The Gospel | Mark 1:29–39

Reader A reading from the Gospel of Mark.

After Jesus and his disciples left the synagogue, they entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. Now Simon’s mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they told him about her at once. He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up. Then the fever left her, and she began to serve them.

That evening, at sundown, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed with demons. And the whole city was gathered around the door. And he cured many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons;

and he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him. In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed. And Simon and his companions hunted for him. When they found him, they said to him, “Everyone is searching for you.” He answered, “Let us go on to the neighboring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also; for that is what I came out to do.” And he went throughout Galilee, proclaiming the message in their synagogues and casting out demons.

Intercessor The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Intercessor Let us pray.
 Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayers of the People |

Intercessor Let us pray for the Church and for the world. Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world.

People Lord in your mercy,
 hear our prayer.

Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good.

People Lord in your mercy,
 hear our prayer.

Intercessor Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory.

People Lord in your mercy,
 hear our prayer.

Intercessor Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us. We give thanks for the gift of new life wherever it is found. (When there is a new birth in parish the intercessor adds: 'especially for the birth of N.')

In the Anglican Communion, we pray for The Church of the Province of the Indian Ocean, in our Diocese we pray for the people and clergy of St. Dunstan's Church in Atlanta, and in our parish we pray, O God, you remember us even when we are far from you. O Lord, it is in worship that we are turned toward what is of true value and ultimate worth. We thank you for all those who give of themselves through preparing for our worship. This day we remember before you those who serve to prepare your altar week in and week out, asking that their service may be a blessing to each of them.

People Lord in your mercy,
 hear our prayer.

Intercessor Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation. I ask your prayers for those in need of healing. (The names of those who are ill will be read aloud.) Lord in your mercy,

People hear our prayer.

Intercessor We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all of your saints in your eternal kingdom. I ask your prayers for those who have died. (The names of those who have died will be read aloud.)

People Lord in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Concluding Collect |

O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of your people; in the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Intercessor Let us bless the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Sermon |

The Rev. Dr. Simon J. Mainwaring

A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

Musical Meditation |

Après un rêve from Three Songs, op. 7

Gabriel Fauré (1845–1924)
arr. Kirk M. Rich (b. 1986)

Noah Johnson, cello

Dr. Kirk M. Rich, organ

Blessing | Christ the Son of God perfect in you the image of his glory and gladden your hearts with the good news of his Kingdom; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit be upon you now and forever. Amen.

Dismissal | Officiant Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.
