“Christ, whose glory fills the skies”

Ratisbon

The All Saints' Adult Choir

1. Christ, whose glo - ry fills the skies, Christ, the true, the on - ly Light,
2. Dark and cheer - less is the morn un - ac - com - pan - ied by thee;
3. Vis - it then this soul of mine! Pierce the gloom of sin and grief!

Sun of Righ - teous - ness, a - rise! Tri - umph o'er the shades of night;
joy - less is the day's re - turn, till thy mer - cy's beams I see;
Fill me, ra - dian - cy di - vine; scat - ter all my un - be - lief;

Day - spring from on high, be near; Day - star, in my heart ap - pear.
till they in - ward light im - part, glad my eyes, and warm my heart.
more and more thy - self dis - play, shin - ing to the per - fect day.

“This is my Son, the Beloved;
listen to him!”

Welcome and Announcements |

Opening Sentences |

Officiant The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light.
People The true light that enlightens everyone is coming into the world.
Officiant The Word became flesh and dwelt among us,
People Full of grace and truth, and we beheld his glory.

Confession and Absolution |

Officiant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.
Officiant and People
Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.
Officiant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Invitatory and Psalm |

Reader Lord, open our lips.
People And our mouth shall proclaim your praise. Glory to the holy and undivided Trinity, one God: as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

Psalm | 50:1–6

Reader The God of gods has spoken;
People God has called the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.
Reader Out of Zion, perfect in its beauty,
People God is revealed in glory.
Reader O God, you will come and will not keep silence;
People before you there is a consuming flame,
and round about you a raging storm.
Reader You call the heavens and the earth from above
People to witness the judgment of your people.
Reader “Gather before me my loyal followers,
People those who have made a covenant with me
and sealed it with sacrifice.”
Reader Let the heavens declare the rightness of your cause,
People for you alone are judge.
Reader and People
Glory to the holy and undivided Trinity, one God: as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

When the Lord was about to take Elijah up to heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal. Elijah said to Elisha, “Stay here; for the Lord has sent me as far as Bethel.” But Elisha said, “As the Lord lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So they went down to Bethel. The company of prophets who were in Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, “Do you know that today the Lord will take your master away from you?” And he said, “Yes, I know; keep silent.”

Elijah said to him, “Elisha, stay here; for the Lord has sent me to Jericho.” But he said, “As the Lord lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.” So they came to Jericho. The company of prophets who were at Jericho drew near to Elisha, and said to him, “Do you know that today the Lord will take your master away from you?” And he answered, “Yes, I know; be silent.”

Then Elijah said to him, “Stay here; for the Lord has sent me to the Jordan.” But he said, “As the Lord lives, and as you yourself live,

I will not leave you.” So the two of them went on. Fifty men of the company of prophets also went, and stood at some distance from them, as they both were standing by the Jordan. Then Elijah took his mantle and rolled it up, and struck the water; the water was parted to the one side and to the other, until the two of them crossed on dry ground.

When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, “Tell me what I may do for you, before I am taken from you.” Elisha said, “Please let me inherit a double share of your spirit.” He responded, “You have asked a hard thing; yet, if you see me as I am being taken from you, it will be granted you; if not, it will not.” As they continued walking and talking, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two of them, and Elijah ascended in a whirlwind into heaven. Elisha kept watching and crying out, “Father, father! The chariots of Israel and its horsemen!” But when he could no longer see him, he grasped his own clothes and tore them in two pieces.

Even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. For we do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim

Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus’ sake. For it is the God who said, “Let light shine out of darkness,” who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

The Gospel | Mark 9:2–9

Reader A reading from the Gospel of Mark.

Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them. And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, “This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!” Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only Jesus.

As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Intercessor The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Intercessor Let us pray.
 Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those
 who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayers of the People |

Intercessor Let us pray for the Church and for the world. Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world.
People Lord in your mercy,
 hear our prayer.

Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good.
People Lord in your mercy,
 hear our prayer.

Intercessor Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory.
People Lord in your mercy,
 hear our prayer.

Intercessor Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us. We give thanks for the gift of new life wherever it is found. (When there is a new birth in parish the intercessor adds: 'especially for the birth of N.')

In the Anglican Communion, we pray for The Church of Ireland, in our Diocese we pray for the people and clergy of for St. Edward's Church in Lawrenceville, and in our parish we pray, O God, you remember us even when we are far from you. This day we give thanks for those who give their working lives so creatively through service on the staff of our parish. We ask your blessing on each of them.
People Lord in your mercy,
 hear our prayer.

Intercessor Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation. I ask your prayers for those in need of healing. (The names of those who are ill will be read aloud.) Lord in your mercy,

People hear our prayer.

Intercessor We commend to your mercy all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that we may share with all of your saints in your eternal kingdom. I ask your prayers for those who have died. (The names of those who have died will be read aloud.)

People Lord in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Concluding Collect |

O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of your people; in the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Intercessor Let us bless the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Sermon |

The Rev. Dr. Andrew K. Barnett

A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.
