Welcome and Announcements

Opening Sentences

Officiant This is the day that the Lord has made.

People Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Confession and Absolution

Officiant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Officiant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Officiant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Invitatory and Psalter

Reader Lord, open our lips.

People And our mouth shall proclaim your praise. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

Psalm 100

Reader May all lands be joyful before you, O God,

People serve you with gladness and come before your presence with a song.

Reader For we know that you are God;

People you yourself have made us, and we are yours;
we are your people and the sheep of your pasture.

Reader We shall enter your gates with thanksgiving, go into your courts with praise,

People give thanks to you and call upon your Name.

Reader For you are good; your mercy is everlasting,

People and your faithfulness endures from age to age.

Reader and People

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

The First Lesson Ezekiel 34:11–16, 20–24

Thus says the Lord God: I myself will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. As shepherds seek out their flocks when they are among their scattered sheep, so I will seek out my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places to which they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited parts of the land. I will feed them with good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel shall be their pasture; there they shall lie down in good grazing land, and they shall feed on rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord God. I will seek the lost, and I will bring back

Reader The word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The Second Lesson Ephesians 1:15–23

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak, but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them with justice.

Reader The word of the Lord.

Therefore, thus says the Lord God to them: I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. Because you pushed with flank and shoulder, and butted at all the weak animals with your horns until you scattered them far and wide, I will save my flock, and they shall no longer be ravaged; and I will judge between sheep and sheep.

I will set up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he shall feed them: he shall feed them and be their shepherd. And I, the Lord, will be their God, and my servant David shall be prince among them; I, the Lord, have spoken.

for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

The Gospel Matthew 25:31–46

Reader A reading from the Gospel of Matthew.

Jesus said, “When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. Then the king will say to those at his right hand, ‘Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me.’ Then the righteous will answer him, ‘Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?’ And the king will answer them, ‘Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.’ Then he will say to those at his left hand, ‘You that are accursed, depart from me into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not give me clothing, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.’ Then they also will answer, ‘Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not take care of you?’ Then he will answer them, ‘Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.’ And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.”

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Lord's Prayer

Intercessor The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Intercessor Let us pray.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayers of the People

- Intercessor* Jesus the Christ, you reign in glory as our King, and to you we lift our voices in prayer, saying,
“Lord, hear our prayer.”
- That we may serve you with gladness and generosity, discovering your likeness in those who hunger and thirst, in those who are threadbare and in prison, and in those who are sick, lonely, depressed, sorrowful, and rejected; let us pray.
- People Lord, hear our prayer.
- Intercessor* For the sea and the dry land, that we may cherish the gifts they bring forth, and be good stewards of their fragile ecosystems; let us pray.
- People Lord, hear our prayer.
- Intercessor* That the sin of division may be lifted from family life, and from wherever it fractures the bonds of affection or movements toward peace, that forgiving what is past and trusting in God’s future, we may work to reveal the kingdom in our time; let us pray.
- People Lord, hear our prayer.
- Intercessor* We pray for the newly born and signs of new life (names of the newly born will be read aloud);
We pray for the sick (names of those who are ill will be read aloud);
We pray for those who have died (names of those who have died will be read aloud);

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

Intercessor Let us bless the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Sermon The Rev. Natosha Reid Rice

Blessing

May the God who shakes heaven and earth, whom death could not contain, who lives to disturb, comfort, and heal us, bless you with power to go forth and proclaim the gospel, in the name of+ the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Dismissal

Officiant Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

1. Crown him with ma - ny crowns, the Lamb up - on his throne;
2. Crown him the Son of God be - fore the worlds be - gan,
3. Crown him the Lord of life, who tri - umphed o'er the grave,
Hark! how the heaven - ly an - them drowns all mu - sic but its own:
and ye, who tread where he hath trod, crown him the Son of man;
and rose vic - to - rious in the strife for those he came to save;
a - wake, my soul, and sing of him who died for thee,
who ev' - ry grief hath known that wrings the hu - man breast,
his glo - ries now we sing who died, and rose on high,
and hail him as the match - less King through all e - ter - ni - ty.
and takes and bears them for his own, that all in him may rest.
who died, e - ter - nal life to bring, and lives that death may die.

The Episcopal Church has declared a church-wide initiative of racial healing, reconciliation, and justice, including a curriculum entitled Sacred Ground: A Film Based Dialogue Series on Race and Faith. The MICA Project plans to initiate Sacred Ground dialogue circles composed of parishioners committed to six months of learning, listening, and engaging one another in a brave space to talk about race and faith. To gauge interest, we ask that you add your name to the list by emailing us at sacredground@allsaintsatlanta.org.

2021 Canvass: Lifting Through Generosity
