Collect for Purity |

Celebrant Praying together,

Celebrant and People

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit; that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Song of Praise | LEVAS 243

“Glory, Glory, hallelujah”

The cantor sings the refrain once, followed by the congregation, then sung where indicated.

Cantor: Glory, Glory, hallelujah, Lord we praise your Holy name, Glory, Glory, hallelujah, Lord we praise your Holy name.

People

Refrain

praise your Ho - ly name. — A - - - - men,

Collect of the Day |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray, and to give more than we either desire or deserve: Pour upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things for which we are not worthy to ask, except through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ our Savior; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

The First Lesson | Lamentations 1:1 – 6

How lonely sits the city that once was full of people! How like a widow she has become, she that was great among the nations! She that was a princess among the provinces has become a vassal. She weeps bitterly in the night, with tears on her cheeks; among all her lovers she has no one to comfort her; all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they have become her enemies. Judah has gone into exile with suffering and hard servitude; she lives now among the nations, and finds no resting place; her pursuers have all overtaken her in the midst of her distress. The roads to Zion mourn, for no one comes to the festivals; all her gates are desolate, her priests groan; her young girls grieve, and her lot is bitter. Her foes have become the masters, her enemies prosper, because the Lord has made her suffer for the multitude of her transgressions; her children have gone away, captives before the foe. From daughter Zion has departed all her majesty. Her princes have become like stags that find no pasture; they fled without strength before the pursuer.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn |

The people stand and sing.

“By the waters of Babylon”

Jamaican folk song

By the wa-ters of Ba-by-lon where we sat down, and there we wept when we re-mem-bered Zi - on. By the wa-ters of For the wick-ed car-ried us a-way, cap - tiv - i - ty re quired from us a song. — How can we sing our ho - ly song in a strange land? For the wick-ed land? So let the words of my mouth and the med-i - ta-tions of my heart be ac-cept-a-ble in your sight, O God.

The Second Lesson | An Epistle from the All Saints' Community

A member of our community reads a letter describing the spiritual practice of generosity.

After the reading:

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn |

The people stand and sing.

"Zimbabwe Alleluia"

The musical score is for a four-part setting of 'Alleluia'. It features four staves: Soprano, Alto, Tenor, and Bass. Each staff contains the lyrics 'Al-le-lu-ia' repeated four times, with musical notation above the text. The Soprano staff uses a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The Alto staff uses a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The Tenor staff uses a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The Bass staff uses a bass clef and a key signature of one flat. The music is in 4/4 time. The lyrics are: 'Al-le-lu-ia, Al-le-lu-ia, Al-le-lu-ia, Al-le-lu-ia.' The score ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

The Gospel | Luke 17:5 – 10

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!" The Lord replied, "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you. "Who among you would say to your servant who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field, 'Come here at once and take your place at the table'? Would you not rather say to him, 'Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink'? Do you thank the servant for doing what was commanded? So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, 'We are worthless servants; we have done only what we ought to have done!'"

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The people repeat the Gospel Alleluia.

Sermon | The Rev. Dr. Andrew K. Barnett

The people are seated at the preacher's invitation.

A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

Sermon Response |

Esa Montaña (The Mountain)

Author Unknown

Si tuvieras fe como grano de mostaza

Eso lo dice el Señor

Tu le dirías a la montaña

Muevete, muevete

Esa montaña se movera

Se movera, se movera

If you had faith like a mustard seed, says the Lord,

You could say to the mountain, move, move.

And the mount would move.

Traditional Cuban Folk Song

The Nicene Creed |

The people stand.

Celebrant Let us affirm our faith using the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit

he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified

under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism
for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People |

The cantor introduces the refrain and the people repeat.

Intercessor I ask your prayers of joy. For whom and for what do we give God thanks?

The people add their own petitions, silently or aloud.

When the time is right, all repeat the refrain.

Intercessor I ask your prayers of concern. For whom and for what do we ask God's help?

The people add their own petitions, silently or aloud.

When the time is right, all repeat the refrain.

Intercessor I ask your prayers for this community, our nation, and world. For whom and for what do we ask God's guidance?

The people add their own petitions, silently or aloud.

When the time is right, all repeat the refrain.

Confession and Absolution |

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

The people stand or kneel for the confession.

Celebrant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Peace |

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The people exchange a sign of God's peace and are seated.

Announcements |

Your financial support helps us participate in God's work in the world. If you would like to contribute to the Sunday offering, we invite you to place your donation in the offering plate, or scan the code to the right with your phone to give electronically.

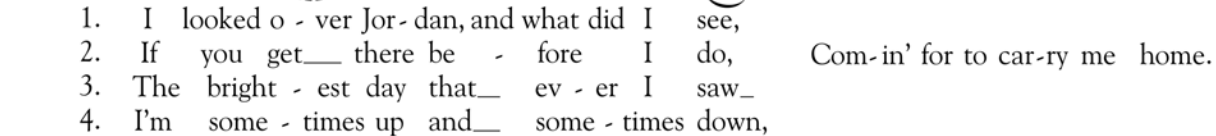

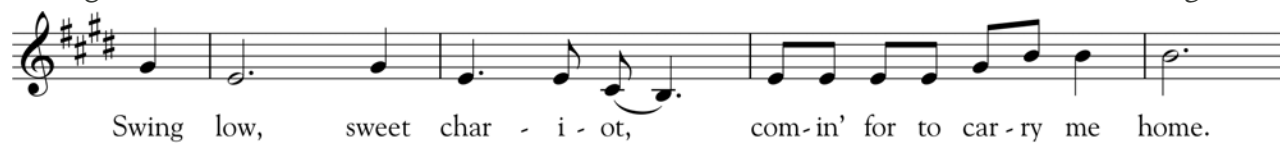

The Holy Communion

Offertory Anthem | LEVAS 18

The congregation joins on the refrain.

“Swing Low, Sweet Chariot”

Swing Low

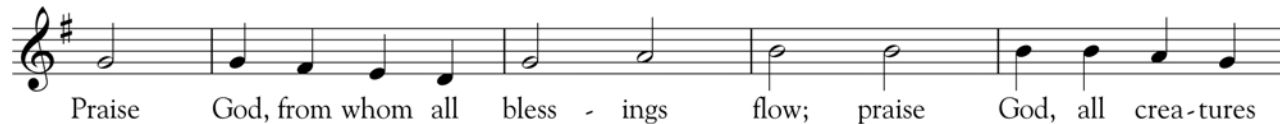

A band of an - gels com-ing af-ter me,
Tell all my friends I'm com - ing too, Com-in' for to car-ry me home.
When Je - sus wash'd my sins a - way,
But still my soul feels heaven-ly bound,

Presentation Hymn |

The people stand.

“Praise God from whom all blessings flow”

Old 100th

Eucharistic Prayer 2 |

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant God of blessing, we thank you always for making us in your image;

People To serve the peace of all creation.

Celebrant You shared your name with our mothers and fathers: Sarah and Abraham, who left their home

People And became a blessing to all nations

Celebrant Moses and Miriam, who went through sea and wilderness

People To the place of revelation;

Celebrant Deborah and Samson, who gave hope and justice

People To a people ruled by fear;

Celebrant Ruth and Jonah, who went to foreign soil

People And found a God who loves the stranger.

Celebrant From our ancestors in faith came Jesus, the son of promise to fulfill the law, embody your love, and draw all people to himself. He accepted death to break its fearful hold; he was raised to life to share it in abundance;

People He comes again to break the bread and pour the wine of hope.

Celebrant Therefore, with all the people whose story you have shaped, with women and men of faith in every part of the world, we glory in your generous love and sing in praise of you:

(organ)

Ho - ly, ho - ly, _____ _____ ho - ly, ho - ly, _____ ho - ly Lord God _____ of hosts, _____ Heav - en and earth _____ are _____ filled with your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. _____ Bless - ed is he who _____ comes in the name _____ of the Lord, _____ _____ of the Lord. _____ Ho - san - na _____ in the high - est, Ho - san - na in the high - est. _____

The Celebrant continues.

We ask that your Holy Spirit will fall upon us and upon these gifts that these fragile, earthly things may be to us the body and blood of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ; who, on the night he was betrayed, gathered with his faltering friends for a meal that tasted of freedom.

Calling them to his table, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and said: "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

In the same way after supper, he took the cup, saying: "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

As on that night, so here and now he offers himself in touch and taste beyond all words can hold. Great is the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

Therefore we come in memory and hope, responding to your call and the promise that echoes from the dawn of all time.

May mind and heart be held by your self-giving love as we stand before the cross, approach the empty tomb and praise the one whose name is lifted high above all earthly power.

Receive our broken offering through your all-powerful grace and bind us in communion with all who share your gifts; through Jesus Christ, in whom all ages and all the worlds are drawn into the ceaseless love of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

and the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Whoever you are, wherever you are on your journey, you are welcome at this table.

The people are seated.

Fraction Anthem |

"This is the Body of Christ"

John Bell

This is the bo-dy of Christ, bro-ken that we may be whole. This cup as pro-mised by God, true to his word, cra-dles our Lord. Food for the good of the soul.

Communion Meditation |

"Take me to the Water"

Earl Stewart Jr.

- 1 Take me to the water.
Take me to the water.
Take me to the water
to be baptized.
- 2 I love Jesus.
I love Jesus.
I love Jesus.
yes, I do.
- 3 Glory, hallelujah.
Glory, hallelujah.
Glory, hallelujah

Blessing |

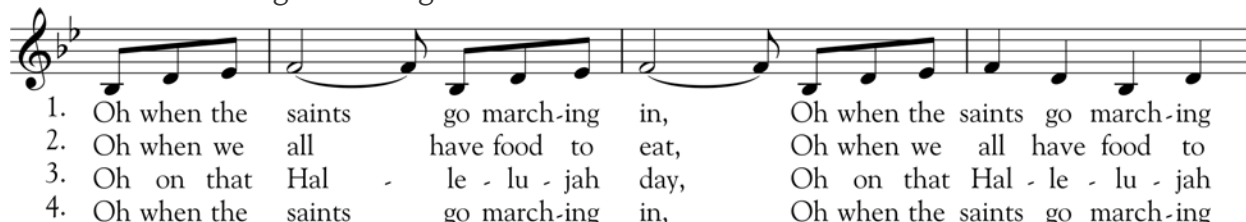

Celebrant

God the Holy Trinity make you strong in faith and love, defend you on every side, and guide you in truth and peace; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit be upon you this day and forever more. Amen.

Closing Hymn | 551

The people process out singing this hymn, repeating the final verse until the music stops. In the event of rain, the vergers offer direction for an indoor celebration.

“Oh when the saints go marching in”

1. Oh when the saints go march-ing in, Oh when the saints go march-ing
2. Oh when we all have food to eat, Oh when we all have food to
3. Oh on that Hal - le - lu - jah day, Oh on that Hal - le - lu - jah
4. Oh when the saints go march-ing in, Oh when the saints go march-ing in, Oh Lord I want to be in that num-ber, when the saints go march-ing in.

eat, Oh Lord I want to be in that num-ber, when the saints go march-ing in.
day, Oh Lord I want to be in that num-ber, when the saints go march-ing in.
in, Oh Lord I want to be in that num-ber, when the saints go march-ing in.

10:20 – 11:05 a.m., Ellis Hall

Engage in conversation with a panel of All Saints' parishioners, each of whom shares a passion and expertise in building a more sustainable Georgia. The panel will imagine the possibilities for us as a greener church in the years to come.

Jesus on the Front Page

Sundays, 10:20 – 11:05 a.m., P305/306

Join this ongoing discussion of the news of the day and how we are called as Christians to respond in the public arena, in our private lives, and in our prayers.

Giving

Welcome to Canvass 2023: Rooted Here and Growing Outward

For Canvass 2023 we are celebrating our beloved magnolia tree standing tall on our block for over 50 years. For many of us it is a symbol for so many things that say

"All Saints"; strength, adventure, solace, protection, bruises, laughter and so much more. Contemplate all that this church offers us and make a 2023 pledge that is meaningful for you. To date we have 175 pledges. Go online allsaintsatlanta.org/give to join in today. Thank you!

Charlie and Anne Henn
2023 Canvass Chairs

Q: What is the easiest way to make a pledge?

A: Scan this QR code. If you don't have a secure Realm account, open one and then make your pledge. It's as easy as that!

There are many ways to make your pledge:

1. Online at allsaintsatlanta.org/give
2. Mail a check to All Saints' Church, 634 W. Peachtree St., Atlanta, GA 30308
3. Put a check or cash into the offering plate during the services
4. Text to Give: text AllSaintsAtlanta to 73256
5. Gift stocks or securities

32nd Annual Pride Eucharist

Thursday, October 6, 7:30 p.m., in the Church

Integrity Atlanta and the Commission on LGBTQ+ Ministry of the Episcopal Diocese of Atlanta will sponsor the 32nd Annual Pride Eucharist. The service will be held at All Saints' and The Rt. Rev. Robert C. Wright, Bishop of Atlanta, will preach and preside at the Eucharist. The service is open to all, and all are welcome. Sign language interpretation will be provided.

Worship & Music

Concert Series: Maurice Clerc, Concert Organist

Friday, October 14, 7:30-9:00 p.m., in the Church

French concert organist Maurice Clerc has played some one thousand recitals in more than twenty-three countries, including twenty-four tours of North America. A student of the famed improviser Pierre Cochereau, organist of Notre-Dame Cathedral in Paris, who performed at All Saints' in the 1970s, Clerc will offer an eclectic program showcasing the vast resources of the Kenan Memorial organ. Tickets are $30, $15 for students, and can be purchased on Realm by scanning the QR code or at the door.

Memorial Flower Donations for All Saints' Day

On November 6, we will celebrate the Feast of All Saints and remember loved ones who are no longer with us. One meaningful form of remembrance is to adorn our worship spaces with flowers, a tradition made possible by the generous donations of this parish. Donate Flower Memorials for All Saints' Sunday by the end of the day on October 23. Scan the QR code to give.

What's God up to? Listening for the heart of All Saints' and our neighbors: Spiritual Storytelling

Sunday, October 9, 10:20 a.m., Ellis Hall

What is your sacred story? What story does All Saints' tell us of the presence of God's grace and love in our lives? Drawing upon our baptismal promise that each of us is a bearer of God's image, join fellow saints in listening to those stories of wonder and longing we each inhabit.

All Saints' Learning Online: Seeking Shalom

Sundays, October 2, 9, 15, & 30, 9:45 – 10:30 a.m., Zoom

The Hebrew word, shalom, encapsulates God's dream for the world. Shalom describes a vision of creation redeemed and restored not just through individual faith but through the cultivation of flourishing communities, just societies, and the healing of our social fabric. Join Emory professor, Dr. Ryan Bonfiglio, for this four-part course that examines the Biblical concept of shalom and how it can transform the way we think about discipleship and the mission of the church today. Deep River, My Home is Over Jordan: Howard Thurman Contemplative Zoom Series

Wednesdays, October 5, 12, 19, & 26, 7:00-8:00 p.m.,
Zoom

You are invited to a contemplative Zoom series on Wednesdays in October, facilitated by All Saints' seminarian Rodell Jefferson and parishioner and Candler graduate Caroline Enloe. Based on the recordings of lectures by the famed Black theological Howard Thurman, topics will include boundaries of the self and breaking down the ego, right action, and emphasis on the movement and flow of life that leaves a mark on each of us. Register for each session individually on Realm.

Children & Youth

Pop-Up Love Shop

Sunday, October 9, 10:20-11:05 a.m., in front of the Church

Join your Sunday School class in front of the church, near the Welcome table/tent to serve at our Pop-Up Love Shop. The children have been making symbols of love to hand out before the Pride Parade. They are learning about giving "love" without expecting anything in return (all items are free), that all people deserve to be treated with love and respect (love your neighbor), and that we are all God's children! Stop by our shop and get some love!

Undie Sunday

Sunday, October 16

Everyone, mark your calendars to buy a pack of underwear (any children's size) and bring to church on October 16th. The formation classes will have a contest on who brings the most undies and then we will organize them by size to take to Threads.

Service

Refugee Ministries: Welcome Four New Families

Refugee Ministries will be welcoming 4 new families! We are looking for volunteers to sign up to provide 3 acts of hospitality in a period of six months. Hospitality acts include an initial meeting with the family with an interpreter or other volunteer present, a trip to the grocery store, going to the park so the kids can play, help with a medical appointment and more. The activities will be determined and scheduled by you and the family. To learn more, please contact Louisa Merchant at louisam@allsaintsatlanta.org

Parish Wide Threads FALL Clothing Drive

- Requesting donations of gently used or new Children's clothing for both Boys and Girls, infants through size 18 and small adult clothing in preparation for RE-Opening Threads for in-shop shopping in October. The School Uniform Event was a huge success, with 400 children served with clothing and shoes. However, that left Threads with low inventory, so we need a clothing drive now!
- Donation boxes are located on the first floor of the Pritchett Center and in the first-floor stairwell between Ellis Hall and Egleston Hall.
- Please consider talking to neighbors and family and asking them to donate too! You may also think about involving your children's extracurricular groups, scouts, or sports teams as well.

Share a Meal with the Men of Covenant Community

For the past 25 years since the founding of Covenant Community, All Saints' parishioners have generously provided dinner on Monday nights for its residents. This has always meant so much to the men of this residential drug treatment facility. Bring dinner yourself or with family, with friends or co-workers. What a great way to offer your support! Meals for around 15 people can either be shared with the men inside the residence or they can be dropped off during the day. To volunteer or for more information, contact Barbara Blender at bblender@bellsouth.net.
