The Word of God

Prelude Music |

Chorale Prelude on O Mensch, beweine' deine' Sünde groß BWV 622

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685–1750)

Mourn your great sins, ye people, for which Christ left His Father's bosom
and came to earth;
from a virgin pure and tender
he was born here for us.
He wished to become our intercessor.
He gave life to the dead and laid aside all sickness until the time approached that he would be offered for us, bearing the heavy burden of our sins,
indeed, for a long time on the Cross.

Dr. Kirk M. Rich, organ

for the Son of Man to be glorified”.

A Message from the Cornerstone Society |

Opening Sentences |

Officiant Lord have mercy.
 People Christ have mercy.
 Officiant Lord have mercy.
 Let us pray.

Almighty God, you alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant your people grace to love what you command and desire what you promise; that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Confession and Absolution |

Officiant If we say we have no sin,
 People we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us;
 Officiant but if we confess our sins,
 People God who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Officiant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Officiant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Officiant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Invitatory and Psalm |

Reader Lord, open our lips.

People And our mouth shall proclaim your praise. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

Psalm | 51:1–13

Reader Have mercy on me, O God, according to your loving-kindness;

People in your great compassion blot out my offenses.

Reader Wash me through and through from my wickedness,

People and cleanse me from my sin.

Reader For I know my transgressions,

People and my sin is ever before me.

Reader Against you only have I sinned

People and done what is evil in your sight.

Reader And so you are justified when you speak

People and upright in your judgment.

Reader Indeed, I have been wicked from my birth,

People a sinner from my mother's womb.

Reader For behold, you look for truth deep within me

People and will make me understand wisdom secretly.

Reader Purge me from my sin, and I shall be pure;

People wash me, and I shall be clean indeed.

Reader Make me hear of joy and gladness,

People that the body you have broken may rejoice.

Reader Hide your face from my sins,

People and blot out all my iniquities.

Reader Create in me a clean heart, O God,

People and renew a right spirit within me.

Reader Cast me not away from your presence,
People and take not your holy Spirit from me.

Reader Give me the joy of your saving help again,
People and sustain me with your bountiful Spirit.

Reader I shall teach your ways to the wicked,
People and sinners shall return to you.

Reader and People

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

The First Lesson | Jeremiah 31:31–34

Mark Thompson

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt – a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord:

 I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, “Know the Lord,” for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord;
 for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

The Second Lesson | Hebrews 5:5–10

Mark Thompson

Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him,

“You are my Son, today I have begotten you”;
 as he says also in another place,

“You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.”

In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered;

 and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

The Gospel | John 12:20–33

Reader A reading from the Gospel of John.

Now among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus." Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honor.

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

"Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say – 'Father, save me from this hour'? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven, "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again." The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him." Jesus answered, "This voice has come for your sake, not for mine. Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out. And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself." He said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.

Intercessor The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Intercessor Let us pray.
 Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

Voluntary | Chorale Prelude on Christus, der uns selig macht BWV 620 Johann Sebastian Bach (1685–1750)

Christ, who makes us blessed,
and who had done no evil,
for us was taken at midnight
like a thief,
led before godless people,
and falsely accused,
jeered, mocked, and spat upon,
as the Scripture says.
