Welcome and Announcements

Blessing of the Pledges

All things come from you, O God. We hear your call to generous giving in the way you meet our needs each day, and in the peace you give which passes understanding. Having received so much, we offer all we have, our time, talents and treasure for your kingdom. Sanctify these gifts for the work of your church. Amen.

Opening Sentences

Officiant This is the day that the Lord has made.

People Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Confession and Absolution

Officiant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Officiant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Officiant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Invitatory and Psalter

The First Lesson Revelation 7:9–17

After this I, John, looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

"Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing,

"Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?"

Reader The word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The Second Lesson 1 John 3:1–3

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now;

Reader The word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

"For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.

They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Hymn Meditation (10:00 a.m. only)

“O God beyond all praising”

Thaxted

The All Saints' Festival Brass

1. O God be-yond all prais-ing, we wor-ship you to-day
2. The flow'r of earth-ly splen-dor in time must sure-ly die,
3. Then hear, O gra-cious Sav-ior, ac-cept the love we bring,
and sing the love a-ma-zing that songs can-not re-pay;
its fra-gile bloom sur-ren-der to you, the Lord Most High;
that we who know your fa-vor may serve you as our King;
for we can on-ly won-der at ev'-ry gift you send,
but hid-den from all na-ture the e-ter-nal seed is sown and whe-ther our to-mor-rows be filled with good or ill, at bles-sings with-out num-ber and mer-cies with-out end:
though small in mor-tal sta-ture, to hea-ven's gar-den grown:
we'll tri-umph through our sor-rows and rise to bless you still:
we lift our hearts be-fore you and wait up-on your word, for Christ, your gift from hea-ven, from death has set us free,
to mar-vel at your beau-ty and glo-ry in your ways,
we ho-nor and a-dore you, our great and migh-ty Lord.
and we through him are gi-ven the fi-nal vic-to-ry.
and make a joy-ful du-ty our sac-ri-fice of praise.

The Gospel Matthew 5:1–12

Reader A reading from the Gospel of Matthew.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

“Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

“Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

“Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

“Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

“Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

“Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.”

The Lord’s Prayer

Intercessor The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Intercessor Let us pray.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Intercessor With clean hearts and a pure faith we pray, "Hear us, O God."

In thanksgiving for many peoples, languages, tribes and nations, whose diversity of thought and action become blessings to all who seek the fullness of God's presence in the midst of daily life; let us pray to the Lord.

People Hear us, O God.

Intercessor For the peacemakers who proclaim justice in the marketplace, and petition prime ministers, presidents and legislators, to turn the ways of war into the dividends of peace; let us pray to the Lord.

People Hear us, O God.

Intercessor For wisdom to all those vote in this year's election, for peace in our communities, and for moral clarity from our our elected leaders; let us pray to the Lord.

People Hear us, O God.

Intercessor We pray for the newly born and signs of new life (names of the newly born will be read aloud);
We pray for the sick (names of those who are ill will be read aloud).

Reading of the Names of the Departed

Rector We pray the names of those saints we have lost in the past year. May they rest in peace and rise in glory.

The Rector reads the names of the departed, as the bell tolls.

Rector O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of your people; in the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, now and forever. Amen.

Rector Let us bless the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Sermon The Rev. Dr. Simon J. Mainwaring

A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

Musical Meditation (10:00 a.m. service only)

“Allerseelen” from Acht Lieder aus Letzte Blätter

“Allerseelen”

*Stell auf den Tisch die duftenden Reseden,
Die letzten roten A stern trag herbei,
Und laß uns wieder von der Liebe reden,
Wie einst im Mai.*

*Gib mir die Hand, daß ich sie heimlich drücke
Und wenn man's sieht, mir ist es einerlei,
Gib mir nur einen deiner süßen Blicke,
Wie einst im Mai.*

*Es blüht und duftet heut auf jedem Grabe,
Ein Tag im Jahre ist ja den Toten frei,
Komm an mein Herz, daß ich dich wieder habe,
Wie einst im Mai.*

Words: Hermann von Gilm (1812–1864), English translation by Alan Jeferson

Samantha Frischling, soprano

Richard Strauss (1864–1949)

“All Souls Day”

Place on the table the fragrant mignonettes,
Bring in the last red asters,
and let us talk of love again,
as once we did in May.

Give me your hand, so that I may secretly press it;
and if someone sees, it's all one to me.
Just give me one of your sweet glances,
as once you did in May.

Flowers bloom and spread their fragrance today
on every grave;
one day in the year is sacred for the dead.
Come close to my heart, so that I can have you again,
as once I did in May.

Blessing

May the God who shakes heaven and earth, whom death could not contain, who lives to disturb and heal us, bless you with power to go forth and proclaim the gospel, in the name of+ the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Dismissal

Officiant Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

This Sunday, November 1 is Commitment Sunday! Please join us by making your pledge today.

This week our final video features vestry member, Sydney Cleland, "I love this idea of lifting. I picture hands supporting and lifting others. I picture open hands that both offer and release gifts to this church and to the wider community in need. We have a truly remarkable church that has been able to do so much during this pandemic. Show your support for our practice of lifting by making your pledge today."

Thank you,

Danny and Louisa Johnson, Chairs of the 2021 Annual Canvass
