Welcome and Announcements

Opening Sentences

Officiant This is the day that the Lord has made.

People Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Confession and Absolution

Officiant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Officiant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Officiant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Invitatory and Psalter

Reader Lord, open our lips.

People And our mouth shall proclaim your praise. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

Psalm 99

Reader God reigns; let the people tremble;

People God is enthroned upon the cherubim; let the earth shake.

Reader God is great in Zion

People and is high above all peoples.

Reader Let them confess God's Name, which is great and awesome;

People God is the Holy One.

Reader "O mighty Ruler, lover of justice, you have established equity;

People you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob."

Reader We proclaim your greatness, O God, and fall down before your footstool;

People you are the Holy One.

Reader Moses and Aaron among your priests, and Samuel among those who call upon your Name,

People they called upon you, and you answered them.

Reader You spoke to them out of the pillar of cloud;

People they kept your testimonies and the decree that you gave them.

Reader "O Holy God, you answered them indeed;

People you were a God who forgave them, yet punished them for their evil deeds."

Reader Proclaim the greatness of our God, and worship on God's holy hill,

People for our God is the Holy One.

Reader and People

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

The First Lesson Exodus 33:12–23

Moses said to the Lord, “See, you have said to me, ‘Bring up this people’; but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, ‘I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my sight.’ Now if I have found favor in your sight, show me your ways, so that I may know you and find favor in your sight. Consider too that this nation is your people.” He said, “My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.” And he said to him, “If your presence will not go, do not carry us up from here. For how shall it be known that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people, unless you go with us? In this way, we shall be distinct, I and your people, from every people on the face of the earth.”

Reader The word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The Second Lesson 1 Thessalonians 1:1–10

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace.

We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. For we know, brothers and sisters beloved by God, that he has chosen you, because our message of the gospel came to you not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of persons we proved to be

Reader The word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The Lord said to Moses, “I will do the very thing that you have asked; for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name.” Moses said, “Show me your glory, I pray.” And he said, “I will make all my goodness pass before you, and will proclaim before you the name, ‘The Lord’; and I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy. But,” he said, “you cannot see my face; for no one shall see me and live.” And the Lord continued, “See, there is a place by me where you shall stand on the rock; and while my glory passes by I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and I will cover you with my hand until I have passed by; then I will take away my hand, and you shall see my back; but my face shall not be seen.”

among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for in spite of persecution you received the word with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit, so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has become known, so that we have no need to speak about it. For the people of those regions report about us what kind of welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead – Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath that is coming.

Hymn Meditation “A Medley of Psalms”

John Michael Talbot (b. 1954)

Words: Psalm 131 “Come to the Quiet” (Ps. 131) and “Only in God” (Ps. 62)

Nella Rigell, Celtic harp

The Gospel Matthew 22:15–22

Reader A reading from the Gospel of Matthew.

The Pharisees went and plotted to entrap Jesus in what he said. So they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and teach the way of God in accordance with truth, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality. Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?” But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, “Why are you putting me to the test, you hypocrites? Show me the coin used for the tax.” And they brought him a denarius. Then he said to them, “Whose head is this, and whose title?” They answered, “The emperor’s.” Then he said to them, “Give therefore to the emperor the things that are the emperor’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” When they heard this, they were amazed; and they left him and went away.

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Lord’s Prayer

Intercessor The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Intercessor Let us pray.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Intercessor As Moses interceded with God for the sake of the people, so let us offer our intercessions on behalf of others, responding, “Lord, hear our prayer.”

That we may clothe ourselves in garments befitting the faithful: compassion, joy, generosity, gladness of spirit, intentionality of life-style, and dedication to the way of our beloved Jesus; let us pray.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Intercessor That the Church may be a refuge for the poor and lost, the lonely and those who hunger after righteousness, revealing through fragile human beings the signs of God’s glorious kingdom; let us pray.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Intercessor In thanksgiving for the beauty of the earth, the fruits of the sea, the rising and setting of the sun, and all the marvelous gifts of God’s creation, that in our wonder we may rededicate ourselves to a stewardship of creation, so that generations to come may enjoy such pleasure; let us pray.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Intercessor We pray to you also for the needs and concerns of this congregation:

We pray for the newly born and signs of new life (names of the newly born will be read aloud);

We pray for the sick (names of those who are ill will be read aloud);

We pray for those who have died (names of those who have died will be read aloud);

Finally we lift up those who have requested our prayers online. For whom and for what do we pray?

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

Intercessor Let us bless the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Sermon The Rev. Dr. Simon J. Mainwaring

A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

Musical Meditation “Gratitude”

Nella Rigell, Celtic harp

Kim Robertson

Blessing

Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which he looks with compassion on this world. Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good. Yours are the hands through which he blesses all the world. Yours are the hands, yours are the feet, yours are the eyes, you are his body. And the blessing of God almighty, the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, be upon you this day and forever more. Amen.

Dismissal

Officiant Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Closing Hymn 362

Reaching Out Into the Community with Refugee Ministries

There are so many ways your pledges serve our community and the city beyond. Did you know that “All Saints’ is a place where miracles happen, miracles of transformed hearts and deeply renewed lives. Yours are those lives. Lives that through God’s grace have the power to be the difference within this world that you seek to see.” – The Rev. Dr. Simon Mainwaring

The Annual Canvass: Lifting Through Generosity has received pledges from 350 households. Thank you so much! Our goal is 750 pledges. Please join us in this work of transformation and make your pledge today. Remember: pledge by October 25 to get your name in the bulletin on All Saints Day, November 1. We must make sure the church has the funds it needs to accomplish our work even if we cannot know today what the status of the pandemic will be in 2021. We know the needs of our community will be great and our resilient spirit will thrive.

And speaking of resilience, enjoy this week’s video featuring our Refugee Ministries and if you have questions, don’t hesitate to ask us.

In faith and with gratitude,

Danny and Louisa Johnson, Chairs of the 2021 Annual Canvass
